Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On November 5, 2013, M/A-COM Technology Solutions Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Micro Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Purchaser”), and Mindspeed Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Mindspeed”), pursuant to which the Company will acquire Mindspeed. Mindspeed is a supplier of semiconductor solutions for communications infrastructure applications. The boards of directors of the Company and Mindspeed have approved the transaction.

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Purchaser will commence a cash tender offer (the “Offer”) to purchase all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01, of Mindspeed (the “Shares”) at a purchase price of $5.05 per Share, net to the seller in cash, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes. Purchaser agreed to commence the Offer as promptly as reasonably practicable but no later than ten business days after the date of the Merger Agreement, and the Offer must remain open for twenty business days, subject to certain extensions of the Offer as set forth in the Merger Agreement. Upon completion of the Offer and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Purchaser will merge with an into Mindspeed (the “Merger”), with Mindspeed surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

The Offer and the Merger are subject to the satisfaction of certain closing conditions, including, among others, that (a) there is validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) the number of Shares which, when added to any Shares owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, would represent at least a majority of the outstanding Shares of Mindspeed, (b) the waiting periods applicable to the Offer under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and similar foreign merger control laws have expired or terminated, and (c) other customary conditions as set forth in Annex A to the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived.

The Merger will be effected pursuant to Section 251(h) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, with no stockholder vote required to consummate the Merger. At the effective time of the Merger, each Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the such effective time (other than (i) Shares then held by the Company, Purchaser, Mindspeed or their respective subsidiaries, (ii) Shares that are held by any stockholders of Mindspeed who properly demand appraisal in connection with the Merger and (iii) shares of unvested restricted stock of Mindspeed assumed by the Company in connection with the Merger) will be cancelled and retired, will cease to exist and will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the same amount in cash per Share that is paid pursuant to the Offer, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties and covenants for a transaction of this nature, including covenants regarding the operation of the business of Mindspeed prior to the closing of the Merger. The Merger Agreement also contains certain termination rights for each of the Company and Mindspeed subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, and in certain circumstances, Mindspeed may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $9.5 million.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, which is incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Purchaser or Mindspeed, their respective businesses, or the actual conduct of their respective businesses during the period prior to the consummation of the Merger. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties that are the product of negotiations among the parties thereto and the parties made to, and solely for the benefit of, each other as of specified dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties and are also qualified in important part by confidential disclosure schedules delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreements instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may not constitute the actual state of facts about the Company, Purchaser and Mindspeed.

Amendment to Revolving Credit Facility

On November 5, 2013, the Company entered into Amendment No. 1 to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the “Amendment”) with the lenders party thereto and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A, as Administrative Agent for the lenders, pursuant to which the Company’s revolving credit facility was amended to allow for certain indebtedness of Mindspeed to remain outstanding after the consummation of the Merger.

The foregoing summary of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Amendment attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 5, 2013, the Company issued a press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Additional Information

The tender offer for the outstanding shares of common stock of Mindspeed described in this Current Report on Form 8-K and the exhibits attached hereto has not yet commenced. This report is not an offer to purchase any shares of Mindspeed or a solicitation of an offer to sell securities. At the time the tender offer is commenced, the Company and Purchaser will file a tender offer statement on Schedule TO, including an offer to purchase, a letter of transmittal and related documents, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), and Mindspeed will file a solicitation/recommendation statement on Schedule 14D-9 with the SEC. The tender offer statement (including an offer to purchase, a related letter of transmittal and other offer documents) and the solicitation/recommendation statement will contain important information that should be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the tender offer. Such materials will be made available to Mindspeed stockholders at no expense to them. In addition, such materials (and all other offer documents filed with the SEC) will be available at no charge on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov.

RECITALS

A. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, Purchaser has agreed to commence a cash tender offer (as it may be extended and amended from time to time as permitted or required under this Agreement, the "Offer") to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock ("Shares") for $5.05 per share of Company Common Stock (such amount or any different amount per share paid pursuant to the Offer to the extent permitted under this Agreement being the "Offer Price"), net to the seller in cash, without interest.

B. Following the consummation of the Offer, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, Purchaser will be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger") with the Company as the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation") in accordance with the DGCL, whereby each Share, except as otherwise provided herein, will be converted into the right to receive the Offer Price, net to the holder thereof in cash, without interest, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.

C. The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Company Board") has unanimously determined that this Agreement and the Transactions are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, has unanimously approved this Agreement and the Transactions in accordance with the DGCL, and has unanimously resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company accept the Offer and tender their Shares to Purchaser pursuant to the Offer.

D. The Board of Directors of Parent has (on its own behalf and as the sole stockholder of Purchaser), approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the Transactions.

E. The Board of Directors of Purchaser has determined that this Agreement and the Transactions are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Purchaser and its stockholder, and has approved this Agreement and the Transactions.

F. The Merger shall be governed by Section 251(h) of the DGCL and shall be effected as soon as practicable following the consummation of the Offer upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.

G. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, and as a condition and inducement to Parent's and Purchaser's willingness to enter into this Agreement, the Company and the Company Board have agreed to take all actions necessary so that no rights shall be issued or exercisable under the Rights Plan, and the Rights Plan shall have no force or effect, with respect to the Transactions.

AGREEMENT

The parties to this Agreement, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 The Offer

Section 1.1 The Offer.

(a) Provided that this Agreement shall not have been terminated in accordance with Article 8, as promptly as practicable after the date of this Agreement but in no event more than ten (10) Business Days after the date of this Agreement, Purchaser shall (and Parent shall cause Purchaser to) commence (within the meaning of Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act) the Offer.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, including the prior satisfaction of the Minimum Condition and the satisfaction or waiver by Purchaser of the other conditions set forth in Annex I (collectively, the “Offer Conditions”), Purchaser shall (and Parent shall cause Purchaser to), as promptly as practicable after the Expiration Date (as it may be extended in accordance with this Section 1.1), consummate the Offer in accordance with its terms, and promptly accept for payment and promptly thereafter pay for all Shares validly tendered and not properly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer.

(c) The Offer shall be made by means of an offer to purchase (the “Offer to Purchase”) in accordance with the terms set forth in this Agreement, the Minimum Condition and the other Offer Conditions. Purchaser expressly reserves the right to (i) increase the Offer Price, (ii) waive any Offer Condition other than the Minimum Condition, and (iii) make any other changes in the terms and conditions of the Offer not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement; provided, however, that unless otherwise provided by this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Company (which the Company may withhold in its sole discretion), Purchaser shall not (A) decrease the Offer Price, (B) change the form of consideration payable in the Offer, (C) decrease the maximum number of Shares sought to be purchased in the Offer, (D) impose conditions to the Offer in addition to the Offer Conditions, (E) amend or modify any of the Offer Conditions in any manner that adversely affects holders of Shares, (F) change or modify the Minimum Condition, or (G) extend or otherwise change the Expiration Date in a manner other than as required or permitted by this Agreement. Parent and Purchaser may waive the Minimum Condition only with the prior written consent of the Company, which may be granted or withheld in the Company’s sole discretion. The Offer may not be terminated or withdrawn prior to the Expiration Date, unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Article 8.

(d) Unless extended pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Offer shall expire at midnight (New York City time) on the date that is twenty (20) business days (for this purpose calculated in accordance with Rule 14d-1(g)(3) under the Exchange Act) following the commencement (within the meaning of Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act) of the Offer (the “Initial Expiration Date”) or, in the event the Offer has been extended beyond the Initial Expiration Date pursuant to and in accordance with this Agreement, the date and time to which the Offer has been so extended (such Initial Expiration Date, or such later date and time to which the Offer has been extended pursuant to and in accordance with this Agreement, is referred to as the “Expiration Date”).

(e) Purchaser shall, and Parent shall cause Purchaser to, extend the Offer from time to time as follows: (i) if on the scheduled Expiration Date, any of the Offer Conditions (including the Minimum Condition) have not been satisfied or, to the extent waivable by Parent or Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, waived by Parent or Purchaser, then Purchaser shall extend the Offer for successive periods of ten (10) Business Days each (or such shorter period as may be agreed by Parent and the Company), in order to permit the satisfaction of such Offer Conditions; and (ii) Purchaser shall extend the Offer for the minimum period required by applicable Legal Requirements, interpretation or position of the SEC or its staff or NASDAQ or its staff; provided, however, that the foregoing clauses (i) or (ii) of this Section 1.1(e) shall not be deemed to impair, limit or otherwise restrict in any manner the right of the parties to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the terms of Section 8.1. Neither Parent nor Purchaser shall extend the Offer in any manner other than pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1.1(e) without the prior written consent of the Company.

(f) The Offer Price shall be adjusted appropriately and proportionately to reflect the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Company Common Stock), reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares or other like change with respect to Company Common Stock occurring on or after the date hereof and at or prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, and such adjustment to the Offer Price shall provide to the holders of Company Common Stock the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action; provided that nothing in this Section 1.1(f) shall be construed to permit the Company to take any action with respect to its securities that is prohibited by the terms of this Agreement.

(g) Purchaser may (and the Offer Documents may reserve the right of Purchaser to) provide for a subsequent offering period (within the meaning of Rule 14d-11 promulgated under the Exchange Act) in compliance with Rule 14d-11 under the Exchange Act of not less than three (3) nor more than twenty (20) business days (for this purpose calculated in accordance with Rule 14d-1(g)(3) under the Exchange Act) immediately following the expiration of the Offer. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Offer, Parent shall cause Purchaser to, and Purchaser shall, accept and pay for all Shares validly tendered during any such subsequent offering period in compliance with Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act.

(h) Neither Parent nor Purchaser shall terminate or withdraw the Offer prior to the then scheduled expiration of the Offer unless this Agreement is validly terminated in accordance with the terms hereof. In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to the terms hereof, Purchaser shall (and Parent shall cause Purchaser to) promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of such termination), irrevocably and unconditionally terminate the Offer, shall not acquire any Shares pursuant to the Offer and shall cause any depository acting on behalf of Purchaser to return, in accordance with applicable Legal Requirements, all tendered Shares to the registered holders thereof.

(i) As promptly as practicable on the date of commencement of the Offer (within the meaning of Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act), Parent and Purchaser shall (i) file with the SEC a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO with respect to the Offer (together with all amendments and supplements thereto and including exhibits thereto, the "Schedule TO") that will contain or incorporate by reference the Offer to Purchase and form of the related letter of transmittal and (ii) cause the Offer to Purchase and related documents to be disseminated to all holders of Shares. Parent and Purchaser agree that they shall cause the Schedule TO and all exhibits, amendments or supplements thereto (which together constitute the "Offer Documents") filed by either Parent or Purchaser with the SEC to comply in all material respects with the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and other applicable Legal Requirements. Each of Parent, Purchaser and the Company agrees to promptly correct any information provided by it or any of its Representatives for use in the Offer Documents if and to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect, and to supplement the information contained in the Offer Documents to include any information that shall become necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and Parent further agrees to use all reasonable efforts to promptly cause the Offer Documents as so corrected or supplemented to be filed with the SEC and to promptly be disseminated to holders of Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable Legal Requirements. The Company shall promptly furnish or otherwise make available in writing to Parent and Purchaser or Parent's legal counsel all information concerning the Acquired Corporations and the Company's stockholders that is required or is reasonably requested by Parent to be included in the Offer Documents. The Company and its counsel shall be given reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Offer Documents prior to the filing thereof with the SEC. Parent and Purchaser agree to provide the Company and its counsel with any comments Parent, Purchaser or their counsel may receive from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Offer Documents promptly after receipt of such comments. Each of Parent and Purchaser shall respond promptly to any comments of the SEC or its staff with respect to the Offer Documents or the Offer.

(j) Parent shall cause to be provided to Purchaser all of the funds necessary to purchase any Shares that Purchaser becomes obligated to purchase pursuant to the Offer, and shall cause Purchaser to perform, on a timely basis, all of Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement. Parent and Purchaser shall, and each of Parent and Purchaser shall ensure that all of their respective controlled Affiliates shall, tender any Shares held by them into the Offer.

Section 1.2 Company Actions.

(a) The Company hereby approves and consents to the Offer and represents and warrants that the Company Board, at a meeting duly called and held, has unanimously (i) determined that this Agreement and the Transactions are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, (ii) approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the Transactions in accordance with the requirements of the DGCL, (iii) resolved to recommend that stockholders of the Company accept the Offer and tender their Shares pursuant to the Offer (such recommendation set forth in this clause and (iii) the "Company Board Recommendation"), (iv) adopted a resolution having the effect of causing the restrictions contained in Section 203 of the DGCL applicable to a "business combination" (as defined in such Section 203) not to apply to the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the Offer, the Merger and the other Transactions, and (v) adopted a resolution having the effect of causing no rights to be issued or exercisable under the Rights Plan, and causing the Rights Plan to have no force or effect, with respect to the Transactions. Subject to Section 5.3, the Company hereby consents to the inclusion of a description of the Company Board Recommendation in the Offer Documents.

(b) As promptly as practicable on the day that the Offer is commenced, the Company shall, following the filing of the Schedule TO, file with the SEC and disseminate to all holders of Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable Legal Requirements, a Tender Offer Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (together with any exhibits, amendments or supplements thereto, the "Schedule 14D-9") that, subject to Section 5.3, shall reflect the Company Board Recommendation. The Schedule 14D-9 shall include as an exhibit an Information Statement pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 promulgated thereunder. The Company agrees that it will cause the Schedule 14D-9 to comply in all material respects with the Exchange Act and other applicable Legal Requirements. Each of Parent, Purchaser and the Company agrees to respond promptly to any comments of the SEC or its staff and to promptly correct any information provided by it or its Representatives for use in the Schedule 14D-9 if and to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect or as otherwise required by applicable Legal Requirements and to supplement the information contained in the Schedule 14D-9 to include any information that shall become necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company further agrees to use all reasonable efforts to cause the Schedule 14D-9 as so corrected or supplemented to promptly be filed with the SEC and to promptly be disseminated to holders of Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable Legal Requirements. Parent and Purchaser shall promptly furnish or otherwise make available in writing to the Company or the Company's legal counsel all information concerning Parent and Purchaser that is required or may reasonably be requested by the Company to be included in the Schedule 14D-9. Parent and its counsel shall be given reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Schedule 14D-9 and any amendment thereto prior to the filing thereof with the SEC. The Company agrees to provide Parent and its counsel with any comments the Company or its counsel may receive from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Schedule 14D-9 promptly after receipt of such comments. The Company shall respond promptly to any comments of the SEC or its staff with respect to the Schedule 14D-9.

(c) In connection with the Offer, the Company shall cause its transfer agent to promptly (and in any event not later than five (5) Business Days after the date hereof) furnish Parent with a list of its stockholders, mailing labels and any available listing or computer file containing the names and addresses of all record holders of Shares and lists of securities positions of Shares held in stock depositories, and shall provide to Parent such additional information (including updated lists of stockholders, mailing labels and lists of securities positions) and such other assistance as Parent or its Representatives may reasonably request. Except for such steps as are necessary to disseminate the Offer Documents and any other documents necessary to consummate the Offer, the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby, Parent and Purchaser and their agents shall hold in confidence the information contained in any such labels, listings and files and shall use such information only in connection with the Offer and the Merger and, if this Agreement shall be terminated, shall, upon request, deliver, and shall use their respective reasonable efforts to cause their agents to deliver, to the Company (or destroy) all copies and any extracts or summaries from such information then in their possession or control.

Section 1.3 Directors.

(a) Upon the Offer Acceptance Time and at all times thereafter, subject to compliance with applicable Legal Requirements, Purchaser shall be entitled to elect or designate such number of directors, rounded up to the next whole number, on the Company Board as is equal to the product of (i) the total number of directors on Company Board (after giving effect to the directors elected or designated by Purchaser pursuant to this sentence) multiplied by (ii) the percentage that the aggregate number of Shares beneficially owned by Parent, Purchaser and any of their Subsidiaries bears to the total number of Shares then outstanding, and Parent shall be entitled to have such designees be elected or appointed to such classes of the Company Board so as to be evenly distributed as possible among the three classes of directors of the Company Board. As used in this Agreement, the term “beneficial ownership” (and its correlative terms) shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act. The Company and the Company Board shall, upon Purchaser’s request at any time following the purchase of and payment for Shares pursuant to the Offer, take all such actions necessary to (A) appoint to the Company Board the individuals designated by Purchaser and permitted to be so designated by the first sentence of this Section 1.3(a), including promptly filling vacancies or newly created directorships on the Company Board, promptly increasing the size of the Company Board (including by amending the bylaws of the Company if necessary so as to increase the size of the Company Board) and/or promptly securing the resignations of such number of its incumbent directors as are necessary or desirable to enable Purchaser’s designees to be so elected or designated to the Company Board, and (B) cause Purchaser’s designees to be so appointed at such time. The Company shall, upon Purchaser’s request following the Offer Acceptance Time, also cause Persons elected or designated by Purchaser to constitute the number of members (rounded up to the next whole number) (1) on each committee of the Company Board and (2) as requested by Parent, to the extent practicable or permitted by applicable Legal Requirements in non-U.S. jurisdictions, on the board of directors of each Subsidiary of the Company (and each committee thereof), in each case that represents the same percentage as such individuals represent on the Company Board. From and after the Offer Acceptance Time, the Company shall, at Parent’s request, take all actions necessary to elect to be treated as a “controlled company,” as defined by NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5615(c)(1), and make all necessary filings and disclosures associated with such status. The Company’s obligations under this Section 1.3(a) shall be subject to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 promulgated thereunder. The Company shall promptly upon execution of this Agreement take all actions required pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 in order to fulfill its obligations under this Section 1.3(a), including mailing to stockholders of the Company (together with the Schedule 14D-9) the information required by Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 as is necessary to enable Purchaser’s designees to be elected or designated to the Company Board. Purchaser shall supply the Company with, and be solely responsible for, information with respect to Purchaser’s designees and Parent’s and Purchaser’s respective officers, directors and Affiliates to the extent required by Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1. The provisions of this Section 1.3(a) are in addition to and shall not limit any rights that any of Purchaser, Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries may have as a record holder or beneficial owner of Shares as a matter of applicable Legal Requirements with respect to the election of directors or otherwise.

(b) Following the election or appointment of Purchaser’s designees to the Company Board pursuant to Section 1.3(a) and until the Effective Time, the Company shall cause the Company Board to maintain at least two

(2) directors who are members of the Company Board on or prior to the to the date hereof and who are not Affiliates, officers, directors or employees of Parent, Purchaser or any of their Subsidiaries, each of whom shall be an “independent director” as defined by Rule 5605(a)(2) of the NASDAQ Marketplace Rules and eligible to serve on the Company’s audit committee under the Exchange Act and NASDAQ Marketplace Rules (the “Continuing Directors”). Until the Effective Time, the approval of a majority of the Continuing Directors shall be required to authorize (in addition to the approval rights of the Company Board or the stockholders of the Company as may be required under the Company Charter Documents or applicable Legal Requirements): (i) any amendment of this Agreement on behalf of the Company; (ii) the exercise, enforcement or waiver of compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement for the benefit of the Company; (iii) any amendment of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the Company that would adversely affect the holders of Shares; (iv) the termination of this Agreement on behalf of the Company; or (v) any extension of time for performance of any obligation or action hereunder by Parent or Purchaser (but only to the extent the Company’s consent is required under this Agreement to effect such extension); provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, following the Offer Acceptance Time, Purchaser may cause its designees elected or appointed pursuant to Section 1.3(a) to withdraw or modify any Adverse Change Recommendation that may have been made prior to such time without the approval of the majority of the Continuing Directors; provided, further, that if any Continuing Director is unable to serve due to death, disability or resignation, the Company shall take all necessary action as soon as possible (including creating a committee of the Company Board) so that the Continuing Director(s) shall be entitled to elect or designate another Person (or Persons) who shall not be an Affiliate, officer, director or employee of Parent, Purchaser or any of their Subsidiaries to fill such vacancy, and such Person (or Persons) shall be deemed to be a Continuing Director for purposes of this Agreement. The Continuing Directors shall have the authority to retain counsel (which may include current counsel to the Company) at the expense of the Company for the purpose of fulfilling their obligations hereunder, and shall have the authority, after the Offer Acceptance Time, to institute any action on behalf of the Company to enforce the performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

The Merger

Section 2.1 Merger of Purchaser into the Company. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Purchaser shall be merged with and into the Company and the separate corporate existence of Purchaser shall thereupon cease. The Company shall be the surviving corporation in the Merger, and the separate corporate existence of the Company, with all its rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises, shall continue unaffected by the Merger, except as set forth in this Article 2.

Section 2.2 Effect of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL.

Section 2.3 Closing; Effective Time. The consummation of the Merger (the “Closing”) shall take place at the offices of Perkins Coie LLP, 1900 16th Street, Suite 1400, Denver, Colorado 80202 at 9:00 a.m. local time, or at such other place, date and time as the parties hereto may agree in writing, as soon as practicable following the consummation of the Offer, but in any event no later than the second (2nd) Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in Article 7 (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions) (the date on which the Closing occurs, which date shall be designated by Parent, the “Closing Date”). Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, a certificate of merger satisfying the applicable requirements of the DGCL shall be duly executed by the Company and, concurrently with or as soon as practicable following the Closing, delivered to the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware for filing. The Merger shall become effective upon the date and time of the filing of such certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such later date and time as is agreed upon in writing by the parties hereto and specified in the certificate of merger (such date and time, the “Effective Time”). From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all the properties, rights, powers, privileges, franchises and be subject to all of the debts, obligations, liabilities, restrictions and disabilities of the Company and the Purchaser, all as provided in the DGCL.

Section 2.4 Merger Without Meeting of Stockholders. The Merger shall be governed by Section 251(h) of the DGCL. The parties hereto agree to take all necessary and appropriate action to cause the Merger to become effective as soon as practicable following the consummation of the Offer, without a meeting of stockholders of the Company in accordance with Section 251(h) of the DGCL.

Section 2.5 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws; Directors and Officers. Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, at the Effective Time:

(a) the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as set forth in Exhibit B;

(b) the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated as of the Effective Time to read as set forth in Exhibit C; and

(c) the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation immediately after the Effective Time shall be the respective individuals who are designated as directors and officers of Purchaser immediately prior to the Effective Time, until their respective death, permanent disability, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

Section 2.6 Conversion of Shares.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of Parent, Purchaser, the Company or any stockholder of the Company:

(i) any Shares then held by the Company or any wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company (or held in the Company's treasury) shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor;

(ii) any Shares then held by Parent, Purchaser or any other wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor;

(iii) except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii) above and subject to Section 2.6(b), each Share then issued and outstanding (other than any Dissenting Shares and any Shares of restricted stock that constitute Company Stock-Based Awards) shall be converted into the right to receive the Offer Price (the "Merger Consideration"), without interest, subject to any withholding of Taxes required by applicable Legal Requirements in accordance with Section 2.7(f); and

(iv) each share of the common stock, $0.001 par value per share, of Purchaser then outstanding shall be converted into one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) At the Effective Time, all such Shares shall cease to be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and any certificates evidencing such Shares (the "Certificates") which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented any such Shares shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration therefor.

Section 2.7 Surrender of Certificates; Stock Transfer Books.

(a) Prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, Parent shall designate a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as agent (the "Paying Agent") for the holders of Shares to receive the funds to which holders of such Shares shall become entitled pursuant to this Agreement. On and after the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Paying Agent sufficient funds to pay the aggregate Merger

Consideration payable in respect of the Shares (the “Payment Fund”) in amounts and at the times necessary for such payments. To the extent the Payment Fund diminishes for any reason below the level required to make prompt payment of the amounts described in the preceding sentence, Parent and Purchaser shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, promptly replace or restore the lost portion of such fund so as to ensure that it is maintained at a level sufficient to make such payments. The Payment Fund shall be invested by the Paying Agent as directed by Parent; provided, that (i) no such investment or losses thereon shall relieve Parent from making the payments required by this Article 2 or affect the amount of Merger Consideration payable in respect of the Shares and following any losses Parent shall promptly provide additional funds to the Paying Agent in the amount of any such losses, (ii) no such investment shall have maturities that could prevent or delay payments to be made pursuant to this Agreement, and (iii) such investments shall be in short-term obligations of the United States of America with maturities of no more than thirty (30) days or guaranteed by, and backed by the full faith and credit of, the United States of America. Any and all interest or other amounts earned with respect to such funds shall be paid to Parent. The Payment Fund shall not be used for any other purpose. The Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to) pay all charges and expenses, including those of the Paying Agent, in connection with the exchange of Shares and the payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of the Shares.

(b) Promptly after the Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each Person who was, at the Effective Time, a holder of record of Shares entitled to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.6(a)(iii) a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates or non-certificated Shares represented by book-entry (“Book-Entry Shares”) pursuant to such letter of transmittal. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent of (A) Certificates, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be reasonably required pursuant to such instructions, or (B) receipt of an “agent’s message” by the Paying Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Paying Agent may reasonably request) in the case of Book-Entry Shares, the holder of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration for each Share formerly evidenced by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, and such Certificates and Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, shall then be canceled. No interest shall accrue or be paid on the Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender of any Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for the benefit of the holder thereof. If the payment of any Merger Consideration is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificates formerly evidencing Shares is registered on the stock transfer books of the Company, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be endorsed properly or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall have paid all transfer and other similar Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Taxes either have been paid or are not applicable. Payment of the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to Book-Entry Shares shall only be made to the Person in whose name such Book-Entry Shares are registered.

(c) At any time following the 180th day after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds which had been made available to the Paying Agent and not disbursed to holders of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares (including all interest and other income received by the Paying Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and, thereafter, such holders shall be entitled to look only to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar Legal Requirements) as general creditors thereof with respect to any Merger Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Surviving Corporation nor the Paying Agent shall be liable to any holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such share to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar Legal Requirements. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Company Common Stock two (2) years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date, immediately prior to such time when the amounts otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Body) shall become, to the extent permitted by applicable Legal Requirement, the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(d) No dividends or other distributions with respect to capital stock of the Surviving Corporation with a record date on or after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificates or Book-Entry Shares.

(e) At the close of business on the day of the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company with respect to Shares shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of Shares on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except as otherwise provided herein or by applicable Legal Requirements. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificate or Book-Entry Share is presented to the Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Paying Agent for surrender or transfer, as applicable, it shall be cancelled and exchanged for the cash amount in immediately available funds to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to this Section 2.7.

(f) The Surviving Corporation, Parent and Purchaser shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause the Paying Agent to deduct and withhold) from the Merger Consideration payable to any holder of Shares such amounts as it is required by any Legal Requirement to deduct and withhold with respect to Taxes. Each such payor shall take all action that may be necessary to ensure that any such amounts so withheld are promptly and properly remitted to the appropriate Governmental Body. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid to the appropriate Governmental Body in accordance with all Legal Requirements, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

(g) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an effective affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, which shall include an agreement to indemnify and defend and hold harmless Parent, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent from and against any and all costs, claims, losses, judgments, damages, counsel fees, expenses and liabilities whatsoever which each may suffer, sustain or incur in connection with the failure of any statement, representation or warranty set forth in such affidavit, any payment for or transfer, exchange or delivery of such Certificate and such Person's inability to locate such Certificate, and, if required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond in customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate a check in the amount (after giving effect to any required Tax withholdings as provided in Section 2.7(f)) equal to the number of Shares represented by such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate that have been surrendered multiplied by the per Share Merger Consideration.

Section 2.8 Appraisal Rights. The Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a holder who is entitled to demand and properly demands appraisal for such Shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration and shall entitle such holder only to payment for such Dissenting Shares in accordance with and to the extent provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, unless such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or otherwise loses such holder's right to appraisal of its Shares. If after the Effective Time such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses such holder's right to appraisal, each such Share shall be treated as if it had been converted as of the Effective Time into a right to receive the Merger Consideration without any interest thereon (less any amounts entitled to be deducted or withheld pursuant to Section 2.7(f)). The Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of Shares, and Parent shall have the right to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands. Parent shall not, except with the prior written consent of the Company, require the Company to make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal or offer to settle or settle any such demands.

Section 2.9 Treatment of Company Equity Awards; Company Equity Plans.

(a) At the Effective Time, each Company Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Purchaser, the Company, the holder of such Company Stock Option or any other Person, assumed by Parent. Each Company Stock Option so assumed (each, an “Assumed Option”) shall continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions set forth in the applicable Company Equity Plan under which it was granted and any option or other agreement between the Company and the holder of such Company Stock Option with regard to such Company Stock Option as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time (including vesting schedule, expiration date, exercise provisions and transfer restrictions), except that (i) each such Assumed Option will be exercisable for that number of whole shares of common stock of Parent equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock that were issuable upon exercise of such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (B) the Equity Exchange Ratio, with the resulting number rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of common stock of Parent, and (ii) the per share exercise price for the shares of common stock of Parent issuable upon exercise of such Assumed Option will be equal to the quotient of (A) the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock at which such Company Stock Option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by (B) the Equity Exchange Ratio, with the resulting exercise price per share rounded up to the nearest whole cent. The assumption of the Company Stock Options is intended to comply with the provisions of Section 424 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder in the case of a Company Stock Option that is intended to be an “incentive stock option” within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code, and with Section 409A of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) At the Effective Time, each Company Stock-Based Award that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Purchaser, the Company, the holder of such Company Stock-Based Award or any other Person, assumed by Parent. Each Company Stock-Based Award so assumed (each, an “Assumed Stock-Based Award”) shall continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions (including vesting and forfeiture terms) set forth in the applicable Company Equity Plan under which it was granted and any restricted stock, restricted stock unit or other agreement between the Company and the holder of such Company Stock-Based Award with regard to such Company Stock-Based Award as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that each such Assumed Stock-Based Award will be converted to the right to acquire or receive that number of whole shares of common stock of Parent equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Company Common Stock underlying such Company Stock-Based Award immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (ii) the Equity Exchange Ratio, with the resulting number rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of common stock of Parent.

(c) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger, the Company Equity Plans other than the ESPP shall be assumed by Parent, with the result that all obligations of the Company under such Company Equity Plans, including with respect to awards outstanding at the Effective Time thereunder, shall be obligations of Parent following the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall take all reasonably necessary actions for the assumption of the Company Equity Plans other than the ESPP, including the reservation, issuance and listing of common stock of Parent in a number at least equal to the number of shares of common stock of Parent that will be subject to the Assumed Options and Assumed Stock-Based Awards.

(d) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company, the Company Board and the compensation committee of the Company Board, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions reasonably necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 2.9.

Section 2.10 Treatment of Convertible Senior Notes. The Company, the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall take all necessary action, including by executing and delivering a supplemental indenture to the trustee under the Notes Indenture, to provide that on and after the Effective Time, each holder of Convertible Senior Notes shall have the right to convert such Convertible Senior Notes into an amount of cash that such holder would have been entitled to receive upon consummation of the Merger in respect of the Shares that such holder would have received had such Convertible Senior Notes been converted into Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the provisions of the Notes Indenture (after giving effect to any applicable change in the "Conversion Rate" or "Conversion Price" thereunder in connection with the Merger). In addition, the Company and the Surviving Corporation shall take all material actions required by the Notes Indenture (in accordance with the time periods and other terms specified therein), including the giving of any notices that may be required in connection with any right of repurchase or conversion of the Convertible Senior Notes occurring as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement constituting a "Fundamental Change", "Make-Whole Fundamental Change", and/or "Merger Event" (as such terms are defined in the Notes Indenture), and delivery of all supplemental indentures, legal opinions, officers' certificates or other documents or instruments required in connection with the consummation of the Merger. The Company shall not make any settlement election relating to the payment of any Interest Make-Whole Premium (as such term is defined in the Notes Indenture) upon conversion of the Convertible Senior Notes without the prior written consent of Parent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Company shall provide Parent, Purchaser and their counsel reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any written notice or material communication to or with holders of Convertible Senior Notes or the trustee under the Notes Indenture prior to the dispatch or making thereof, and the Company shall give reasonable and good faith consideration to any comment made by Parent, Purchaser or their counsel.

Section 2.11 Further Action. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is reasonably determined by Parent to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full right, title and possession of and to all rights and property of Purchaser and the Company, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be fully authorized (in the name of Purchaser, in the name of the Company and otherwise) to take such action.

(d) Each of the Acquired Corporations is qualified or licensed to do business as a foreign Entity and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business requires such qualification or license, except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

As of the date of this Agreement, no cancellation, interference, opposition, reissue, or reexamination proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened, in which the validity, enforceability or ownership of any Company Owned Registered IP, or to the knowledge of the Company, any other Company Registered IP, is being contested or challenged (other than office actions or similar communications issued by any Governmental Body in the ordinary course of prosecution of any pending applications for registration of any such Company Registered IP). Each of the patents and patent applications included in the Company Owned Registered IP identifies by name each inventor of the claims thereof as determined in accordance with the Legal Requirements of the jurisdiction in which such patent is issued or such patent application is pending. As of the date of this Agreement, (A) all registration, renewal, maintenance and other similar payments that have become due with respect to the Company Owned Registered IP, and with respect to any other Company Registered IP to the extent any Acquired Corporation is responsible for the prosecution or maintenance of such Company Registered IP or the costs thereof (together with the Company Owned Registered IP, the “Company Managed IP”), have been timely paid by or on behalf of the Company or another Acquired Corporation, and (B) except with respect to any applications for Company Managed IP, the Company Managed IP is subsisting and, to the knowledge of the Company, valid and enforceable and in full force and effect and has not lapsed (except for any patents within the Company Managed IP having lapsed or expired at the end of their statutory term), been abandoned, been disclaimed, been cancelled or been forfeited.

(b) The Company or another Acquired Corporation is the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in the Company Owned IP, free and clear of all Encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances and other than Outbound Licenses, and non-exclusive licenses granted by an Acquired Corporation in the ordinary course of business). Except as set forth on Part 3.10(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, no Acquired Corporation has received, in the three (3) year period prior to the date of this Agreement, a written notice from any third party (including any employee or consultant) pursuant to which such third party claims to own or have any right or interest in or to (other than any inalienable moral right or any other inalienable right or interest retained pursuant to applicable Legal Requirements), or to have any right to receive any royalty or other material payment for the Acquired Corporations’ use or exploitation of, any Company Owned IP. The Acquired Corporations own, or hold a license or other right to use, all Intellectual Property Rights necessary for the conduct of the Acquired Corporations’ business as currently conducted (other than such rights sold pursuant to a Wireless Divestiture in accordance with the applicable Divestiture Agreements) and as currently conducted on a pro forma basis assuming that the wireless business had been divested prior to the date hereof. Except as set forth on Part 3.10(b) of the Company Disclosure schedule, to the knowledge of the Company, all assignments made to an Acquired Corporation for any Company Owned Registered IP are valid and enforceable and have been recorded in compliance with applicable Legal Requirements. Nothing set forth in this Section 3.10(b) shall constitute a representation or warranty regarding the infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights owned by another Person, and the sole representation with respect to infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights owned by another Person is set forth in Section 3.10(e).

(c) Part 3.10(c) of the Company Disclosure Schedule identifies (i) each Contract pursuant to which any Intellectual Property Rights or Intellectual Property of another Person (other than an Affiliate of the Company), in each case that is material to the business of the Acquired Corporations as currently conducted, is licensed to any Acquired Corporation (other than licenses (1) to COTS Software and (2) granted by employees of the Company pursuant to employee Contracts) (each, an “Inbound License”), and (ii) each Contract pursuant to which any material Intellectual Property Rights or material Intellectual Property owned by any of the Acquired Corporations is licensed to another Person (other than an Affiliate of the Company) other than any non-exclusive outbound license entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice (each, an “Outbound License”). To the knowledge of the Company, each of the Inbound Licenses and the Outbound Licenses (together “IP Licenses”) is valid and binding on all parties thereto and enforceable in accordance with its terms, there exists no event or condition that does or will result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default by any of the Acquired Corporations thereunder, and there exists no event or condition caused by or in the control of the Acquired Corporations or other fact or condition that does or will result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default by any other party thereunder. Each Acquired Corporation is in compliance with, and has not breached any term of any such IP Licenses and, to the knowledge of the Company, all other parties to such IP Licenses are in compliance with, and have not breached any term of, such IP Licenses. The consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder will not result in the breach, modification, cancellation, termination, suspension of, or acceleration of any payments with respect to such IP Licenses, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Following the Closing, the Acquired Corporations will be permitted to exercise all of their respective rights under such IP Licenses to the same extent they would have been able to had the transactions not occurred and without the payment of any additional amounts or consideration other than ongoing fees, royalties or payments which the Acquired Corporations would otherwise be required to pay (except to the extent arising from any Contract to which Parent or its Affiliates is a party and to which no Acquired Corporation is a party).

(d) As of the date of this Agreement, none of the Company Owned IP is subject to any pending or outstanding injunction, directive, order, decree, award, settlement, judgment or other disposition of dispute that would reasonably be expected to adversely restrict the use, transfer, registration or licensing of any such Company Owned IP by the Acquired Corporations, or otherwise would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the validity or enforceability of any such Company Owned IP.

(e) To the knowledge of the Company, the operation of the business of the Acquired Corporations as currently conducted does not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property Rights owned by another Person in any material respect. Except as set forth on Part 3.10(e) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, (i) no Legal Proceeding has been asserted in the five year period prior to the date of this Agreement, is pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, is being threatened, against any of the Acquired Corporations relating to any infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights of another Person by any of the Acquired Corporations, and (ii) none of the Acquired Corporations has received, in the three (3) year period prior to the date of this Agreement, any written notice (including any written offers to license) alleging any infringement, misappropriation or violation of any Intellectual Property Rights of another Person by any of the Acquired Corporations. As of the date of this Agreement and except as set forth on Part 3.10(e) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, none of the material Intellectual Property Rights owned by any of the Acquired Corporations is subject to any pending or outstanding injunction, directive, order, decree, award, settlement or judgment that would reasonably be expected to restrict the ownership, use, validity or enforceability of any such Intellectual Property Rights.

(f) To the knowledge of the Company, no other Person is infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating any Intellectual Property Rights owned by any of the Acquired Corporations.

(g) To the knowledge of the Company, each Person who is or was involved in the creation or development of any Company Owned IP has signed an agreement containing an assignment of Intellectual Property Rights to the Acquired Corporations and confidentiality provisions protecting such Company Owned IP which, to the Company's knowledge, has not been breached by any such Person. The Acquired Corporations have taken reasonable actions to maintain the confidentiality of the material proprietary information held by any of the Acquired Corporations, or purported to be held by any of the Acquired Corporations, as a trade secret. To the knowledge of the Company, no trade secrets or proprietary information included in the material Intellectual Property Rights owned by any of the Acquired Corporations have been disclosed to or used by any Person except pursuant to a non-disclosure agreement which, to the knowledge of the Company, has not been breached by any such Person.

(h) No funding, facilities or personnel of any Governmental Body or any university, college, research institute or other educational institution has been used to create any material Intellectual Property Rights owned by any of the Acquired Corporations, except for any such funding or use of facilities or personnel that has not resulted in such Governmental Body or institution obtaining ownership rights to such Intellectual Property Rights.

(i) Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no Company Owned IP contains any Open Source Materials, and no Open Source Materials have been used in, incorporated into, integrated or bundled with any current products or services. Each Acquired Corporation has used its best efforts to: (i) identify such Open Source Materials; and (ii) to avoid the release of the source code of the software owned or exclusively licensed to the Acquired Corporation. There has been no material deviation from such efforts and procedures of the Acquired Corporations with respect to Open Source Materials.

The Company has delivered or otherwise made available to Parent prior to the date of this Agreement true and complete copies of all material insurance policies, programs and arrangements and all such policies, programs and arrangements are in full force and effect.

Section 3.20 Transactions with Affiliates. The Company and the Company Board have taken all actions necessary so that neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the Transactions (including the Offer, the Merger, and the other Transactions) will cause (a) the grant of any new rights under the Rights Plan or (b) any rights previously granted under the Rights Plan to become exercisable.

Section 3.23 Vote Required. Assuming the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated in accordance with Section 251(h) of the DGCL and assuming the accuracy of Parent's and Purchaser's representation and warranty set forth in Section 4.8, no stockholder votes or consents are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the Transactions.

Section 3.24 Fairness Opinion. The Company Board has received the written opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, as financial advisor to the Company (the “Company Financial Advisor”), dated as of the date of this Agreement, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the Offer Price is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company’s stockholders (other than Parent and its Affiliates). In addition, the Company Board has received the written opinion of Needham & Company, LLC (“Needham”), dated as of the date of this Agreement, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the holders of Shares (other than Parent or any of its affiliates and other than holders of Dissenting Shares) pursuant to this Agreement is fair from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Section 3.25 Brokers and Finders. Neither the Acquired Corporations nor any of their respective officers, directors or employees has employed any broker or finder or incurred any liability for any brokerage fees, commissions or finder’s fees in connection with the Offer, the Merger or the other Transactions, except that the Company has employed the Company Financial Advisor and Needham, and the Company has made available to Parent prior to the execution of this Agreement (i) a true and complete copy of the engagement letter and any other agreements between the Company and the Company Financial Advisor pursuant to which such firm would be entitled to any payment relating to the Offer, the Merger and the other Transactions and (ii) a true and complete copy of the engagement letter between the Company and Needham.

Section 3.26 Export Controls. The Acquired Corporations have conducted their respective export transactions in accordance with applicable export control Legal Requirements, including the Export Administration Act, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (the “ITAR”), and the Export Administration Regulations (the “EAR”). Without limiting the foregoing, (i) each Acquired Corporation has obtained all export licenses and other Permits required for its exports of products, software and technologies from the United States or any jurisdiction from which it exports products, software or technology; (ii) each Acquired Corporation is in compliance with the terms of all such export licenses and other Permits; (iii) there are no pending or, to the Company’s knowledge, threatened claims or investigations against any of the Acquired Corporations with respect to such export licenses or Permits; and (iv) there are no actions, conditions or circumstances pertaining to the Acquired Corporation’s export transactions that may give rise to any future claims or investigations. All epitaxial and semiconductor process technologies, technical data, services and articles utilized by the Acquired Corporations in the manufacture of its products to date or currently contemplated to be utilized by any Acquired Corporation in the future, whether owned, licensed, or obtained through supply agreements with third party providers (each, a “Company Process Technology”), are commercial or dual-use technologies controlled by the EAR, and no Company Process Technology are listed on the United States Munitions List or otherwise controlled by the ITAR. In furtherance, and not in limitation of the foregoing, no Company Process Technology has been specifically designed, developed, configured, adapted, or modified for a military, intelligence, or space application.

Section 3.27 Information in the Offer Documents and Schedule 14D-9. None of the information with respect to the Acquired Corporations supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of the Company for inclusion in the Offer Documents will, at the time of the filing of the Offer Documents, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time of any distribution or dissemination of the Offer Documents and at the time of the consummation of the Offer, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. At the time of the filing, at any time it is amended or supplemented and at the time of publication, distribution and dissemination to the Company’s stockholders, the Schedule 14D-9 (i) will comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and (ii) will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. For clarity, the representations and warranties in this Section 3.27 will not apply to statements or omissions included or incorporated by reference in the Offer Documents or the Schedule 14D-9 based upon information supplied to the Company by Parent or Purchaser or any of their Representatives for inclusion therein.

Section 3.28 Customers and Suppliers. Part 3.28(a) of the Company Disclosure Schedule accurately identifies the name of each end customer and distributor, and revenues received from such end customer and distributor, that accounted for: (a) more than 10% of the consolidated gross revenues of the Acquired Corporations in the fiscal year ended September 28, 2012; or (b) more than 10% of the consolidated gross revenues of the Acquired Corporations in the nine months ended June 28, 2013. Part 3.28(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule accurately identifies the name of each supplier, and the payments made to such supplier, that accounted for: (i) more than 10% of the consolidated gross expenses of the Acquired Corporations in the fiscal year ended September 28, 2012; or (ii) more than 10% of the consolidated gross expenses of the Acquired Corporations in the nine months ended June 28, 2013. None of the Acquired Corporations has received any written notice stating any end customer, distributor, supplier or other Person identified in Part 3.28(a) or Part 3.28(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule intends to cease dealing with any of the Acquired Corporations.

Section 3.29 Wireless Divestiture. If Divestiture Agreements are executed and delivered by the Company or any other Acquired Corporation, as applicable, upon the execution and delivery thereof, (a) the Company shall have delivered true and correct copies thereof to Parent, (b) such Divestiture Agreements shall constitute valid agreements, binding, in full force and effect and enforceable by the Company and any other Acquired Corporation party thereto and, to the knowledge of the Company, each other party thereto, in accordance with their terms, subject to (i) Legal Requirements of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors and (ii) Legal Requirements governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies, and (c) no Acquired Corporation nor, to the knowledge of the Company, any other party thereto, shall be in breach or default thereunder (nor shall any Acquired Corporation or, to the knowledge of the Company, any other party thereto, have failed to take any action thereunder that with or without notice, lapse of time or both would constitute a breach or default thereunder).

ARTICLE 4

Representations and Warranties of Parent and Purchaser

Parent and Purchaser hereby represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

Section 4.1 Due Organization. Except with respect to matters that, individually or in the aggregate, would not materially and adversely affect Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions, each of Parent and Purchaser is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization and has all necessary corporate power and authority: (a) to conduct its business in the manner in which its business is currently being conducted and (b) to own and use its assets in the manner in which its assets are currently owned and used. Parent has delivered or made available to the Company or the Company's Representatives prior to the date of this Agreement accurate and complete copies of the certificate of incorporation, bylaws and other charter and organizational documents of Purchaser, including all amendments thereto. Neither Parent nor Purchaser is in material violation of their respective certificates of incorporation or bylaws.

Section 4.2 Purchaser. Purchaser was formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated hereby and has not engaged in any business activities or conducted any operations other than in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. Parent owns beneficially and of record all of the outstanding capital stock of Purchaser.

Section 4.3 Authority; Binding Nature of Agreement. Parent and Purchaser have the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver and perform their obligations under this Agreement; and the execution, delivery and performance by Parent and Purchaser of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Parent and Purchaser and their respective boards of directors, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of Parent or Purchaser are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, other than, with respect to the Merger, the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL. This Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Parent and Purchaser, and assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by the Company, is enforceable against them in accordance with its terms, subject to (a) laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors, and (b) rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies. This Agreement has been duly adopted immediately following its execution by Parent as the sole stockholder of Purchaser in accordance with the DGCL.

Section 4.4 Non-Contravention; Consents. Assuming compliance with the applicable provisions of the HSR Act, applicable foreign Antitrust Laws, and the rules and regulations of NASDAQ, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Parent and Purchaser, and the consummation by Parent and Purchaser of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, will not: (a) result in a breach or violation of, or default under, any of the provisions of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Parent or Purchaser; (b) result in a breach or violation by Parent or Purchaser of any Legal Requirement applicable to Parent or Purchaser, or to which either of them is subject; or (c) with or without notice or lapse of time or both, result in a breach or violation of, a termination (or right of termination) or default under, any change in or acceleration or creation of any obligations or the creation of any Encumbrance on the assets of Parent or Purchaser or change or loss of rights pursuant to, any Contract, in each case, that would be binding upon Parent or Purchaser, except as, individually or in the aggregate, would not materially and adversely affect Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions. Except as may be required by the Exchange Act, blue sky Legal Requirements and Takeover Laws, the DGCL, the HSR Act, applicable foreign Antitrust Laws and the rules and regulations of NASDAQ, neither Parent nor Purchaser, nor any of Parent's other Affiliates, is required to make any filing with or give any notice or report to, or to obtain any Consent from, any Person at or prior to the Closing in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Parent or Purchaser or the consummation by Parent or Purchaser of the Offer, the Merger and the other Transactions contemplated hereby, except those that the failure to make or obtain, individually or in the aggregate, would not materially and adversely affect Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions. No vote of Parent's stockholders is necessary to approve this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 4.5 Information in the Offer Documents and Schedule 14D-9. None of the information with respect to Parent or Purchaser supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of Parent or Purchaser for inclusion in the Schedule 14D-9 will, at the time of the filing of the Schedule 14D-9, at any time it is amended or supplemented or at the time of any distribution or dissemination of the Schedule 14D-9, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. At the time of the filing of the Offer Documents, at any time any Offer Document is amended or supplemented and at the time of the distribution and dissemination of the Offer Documents and at the time of the consummation of the Offer, the Offer Documents (i) will comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and (ii) will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. For clarity, the representations and warranties in this Section 4.5 will not apply to statements or omissions included or incorporated by reference in the Offer Documents based upon information supplied to Parent by the Acquired Corporations or any of their Representatives specifically for inclusion therein.

Section 4.6 Absence of Litigation. As of the date of this Agreement, there is no Legal Proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Parent, threatened against Parent or Purchaser that would materially and adversely affect Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions contemplated hereby. As of the date of this Agreement, neither Parent nor Purchaser is subject to any continuing order of, consent decree, settlement agreement or similar written agreement with, or, to the knowledge of Parent, continuing investigation by, any Governmental Body, or any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award of any Governmental Body that would materially and adversely affect Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 4.7 Funds. Parent has, and at the Offer Acceptance Time and the Closing, Parent will have, and will cause Purchaser to have, the financial resources (including undrawn credit facilities) necessary to consummate the Transactions and satisfy all of Parent's and Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement, including payment in cash of the aggregate Offer Price at the Offer Acceptance Time and the aggregate Merger Consideration on the Closing Date, and there is no restriction on the use of such cash for such purposes. Parent and Purchaser acknowledge and agree that their obligations hereunder are not subject to any conditions regarding Parent's, Purchaser's or any other Person's ability to obtain financing for the consummation of the Offer, the Merger or the Transactions.

Section 4.8 Ownership of Company Common Stock. As of the date of this Agreement, none of Parent or any of Parent's Subsidiaries owns (directly or indirectly, beneficially or of record) and at all times for the past three years, neither Parent nor any of Parent's Subsidiaries has owned (directly or indirectly, beneficially or of record), any Shares or any securities, contracts or obligations convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Shares.

Section 4.9 Solvency of the Surviving Corporation. Assuming the accuracy, in all material respects, of the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in this Agreement, immediately after giving effect to the Transactions and actions taken in connection with the Transactions, the Surviving Corporation will be Solvent. For purposes of this Agreement, the Surviving Corporation shall be deemed "Solvent" so long as: (i) each of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall not have incurred debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature or become due; (ii) the then present fair salable value of the assets of each of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall exceed the amount that shall be required to pay their liabilities (including the amount necessary to provide for contingent liabilities) and their respective debts as they become absolute and mature; (iii) the assets of each of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, in each case at a fair valuation, shall exceed their respective debts (including the amount necessary to provide for contingent liabilities); and (iv) each of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall not have unreasonably small capital to carry on their respective businesses, as presently conducted. No transfer of property is being made and no obligation is being incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud any present or future creditors of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries.

ARTICLE 5 Certain Covenants of the Company

Section 5.1 Access and Investigation.

(a) During the period from the date of this Agreement until the Effective Time, upon reasonable advance notice to the Company, the Company shall, and shall cause the other Acquired Corporations to provide Parent and Parent's Representatives with reasonable access during normal business hours of the Company to the Acquired Corporations' Representatives, personnel, properties, assets and to all existing books, records and other documents and information relating to the Acquired Corporations; provided, however, that any such access shall be conducted in such a manner as to not to interfere unreasonably with the normal operation of the business of the Acquired Corporations; provided, further that no investigation pursuant to this Section 5.1 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by the Company in this Agreement. With respect to the information disclosed pursuant to this Section 5.1, Parent shall comply with, and shall instruct the applicable Representatives of Parent to comply with, all of its confidentiality obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement dated August 19, 2013, by and between the Company and Parent (the "Confidentiality Agreement").

(b) Nothing in Section 5.1(a) shall require the Company to disclose any information to Parent if such disclosure would (i) result in the waiver of any attorney client or other applicable privilege; or (ii) contravene any applicable Legal Requirement. The Company and Parent will each use its commercially reasonable efforts to make appropriate substitute arrangements to permit reasonable disclosure under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply. Nothing in this Section 5.1 shall be construed to require the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, or any Representatives of any of the foregoing to prepare any written reports, analyses, appraisals, opinions or other information.

(c) During the Pre-Closing Period, if Parent or Purchaser requests the Company to take actions with respect to a Wireless Divestiture pursuant to Section 6.16, the Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed with respect to the progress of such Wireless Divestiture, including by notifying Parent promptly with respect to any material developments in the negotiation and execution of the Divestiture Agreements and the consummation of such Wireless Divestiture.

(a) During the Pre-Closing Period: (i) except (w) as required or otherwise contemplated under this Agreement, (x) with the written consent of Parent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), (y) actions required to be taken by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of any Divestiture Agreement, or (z) as set forth in Part 5.2 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company shall ensure that each of the Acquired Corporations conduct its business and operations (A) in the ordinary course and in substantially the same manner as previously conducted and (B) use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements and the requirements of all Material Contracts; and (ii) the Company shall promptly notify Parent of (A) any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the Consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (B) any Legal Proceeding commenced, or, to its knowledge threatened, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting any of the Acquired Corporations that relates to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact the components of its and its Subsidiaries' current business organization, including keeping available the services of current officers, employees and consultants, and use all reasonable efforts to maintain relations and goodwill with their respective suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, customers and other business associates and Governmental Bodies.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the Pre-Closing Period, except (w) as required or otherwise contemplated under this Agreement, (x) with the written consent of Parent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), (y) actions required to be taken by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of any Divestiture Agreement, or (z) as set forth in Part 5.2 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company shall not, and shall not permit any of the other Acquired Corporations to:

(i) declare, accrue, set aside or pay any dividend or make any other distribution in respect of any shares of the Company's capital stock, or purchase or repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of the Company's capital stock or Convertible Senior Notes, other than (A) dividends or distributions between or among any of the Acquired Corporations to the extent consistent with past practices, (B) acquisitions by the Company of Shares in connection with the surrender by holders of Company Stock Options in order to pay the exercise price of such Company Stock Options, (C) the withholding of Shares to satisfy Tax obligations with respect to awards granted pursuant to Company Equity Plans and (D) the acquisition by the Company of Company Stock Options, Company Stock-Based Awards, Company Performance Awards or ESPP Purchase Rights in accordance with the terms thereof in effect as of the date of this Agreement, as applicable, in connection with the forfeiture of such awards;

(iii) split, combine or reclassify its outstanding shares of capital stock or enter into any agreement with respect to voting of any of its capital stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for such capital stock;

(iv) (A) except as required by applicable Legal Requirement, (1) increase the compensation payable or that could become payable by any Acquired Corporation to directors, officers or employees, (2) enter into or amend in any material respect, any existing employment, severance, retention or change in control agreement with any of its past or present officers or employees, including any arrangement that would require disclosure pursuant to the first sentence of Section 3.17(s) if entered into prior to the date of this Agreement, (3) promote any officers or employees, except in connection with the Company's regular compensation review cycle or as the result of the termination or resignation of any officer or employee, or (4) establish, adopt, enter into, amend, terminate, exercise any discretion under, or take any action to accelerate rights under any Employee Plans or any plan, agreement, program, policy, trust, fund or other arrangement that would be an Employee Plan if it were in existence as of the date of this Agreement, or make any contribution to any Employee Plan, other than contributions required by applicable Legal Requirements, the terms of such Employee Plans as in effect on the date hereof, or (B) pay or enter into a Contract to pay any "stay bonus", "closing bonus" or any other bonus or compensation in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby;

(vi) amend, modify or waive any provision of or permit the adoption of any amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other charter or organizational documents;

(vii) form any Subsidiary, acquire any equity interest or other interest in any other Entity or enter into any joint venture, partnership or similar arrangement;

(viii) incur any indebtedness for borrowed money or issue any debt securities or other rights to acquire debt securities of the Company or any Acquired Corporation or assume, guarantee or endorse, as an accommodation or otherwise, the obligations of any other Person, in the case of any of the foregoing, involving an aggregate principal amount or potential guaranteed amount in excess of $100,000 individually or $250,000 in the aggregate, or otherwise incur or modify any material indebtedness or liability, other than draws from the Company's revolving line of credit pursuant to the Loan and Security Agreement between the Company and Silicon Valley Bank dated as of February 6, 2012, as amended, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, provided that the total amount outstanding under such revolving line of credit will not exceed $13,521,000;

(xii) lend money or make capital contributions to, or make investments in, any Person, except in each case in the ordinary course of business;

(xiii) enter into, modify, amend or terminate any Material Contract or waive, release or assign any rights or claims thereunder, which if so entered into, modified, amended, terminated, waived, released or assigned would be reasonably expected to (A) result in a Material Adverse Effect; or (B) limit or restrict the Surviving Corporation, any Affiliate of the Surviving Corporation or any of their successors and assigns from engaging or competing in any line of business or in any geographical area;

(xiv) except to the extent required by applicable Legal Requirements, make or change any material Tax election, settle or compromise any material Tax liability, claim or assessment, change any annual Tax accounting period, change or consent to any change in any Tax accounting method, file any amended material Tax Return, enter into any closing agreement, surrender any right to claim a material Tax refund, waive or extend or consent to any extension or waiver of the statute of limitations period applicable to any material Taxes, Tax claim or assessment, or incur any material liability for Tax outside the ordinary course of business;

(xix) agree or commit to take any of the actions described in clauses (i) through (xviii) of this Section 5.2(b).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall give to Parent or Purchaser, directly or indirectly, rights to control or direct the operations of the Acquired Corporations prior to the Offer Acceptance Time.

Section 5.3 No Solicitation.

(a) During the Pre-Closing Period, the Company shall not, and shall cause the other Acquired Corporations not to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective Representatives not to, directly or indirectly: (i) solicit, initiate, or knowingly take any action to induce, facilitate or encourage the submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal; (ii) furnish any information regarding any of the Acquired Corporations to any Person (other than Parent or Purchaser) in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal; (iii) participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person (other than Parent or Purchaser) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal; (iv) adopt, approve, recommend, submit to stockholders or declare advisable any Acquisition Proposal (or grant any waiver under Section 203 of the DGCL); (v) release or permit the release during the Pre-Closing Period of any Person from, or waive or permit the waiver of any provision of any confidentiality, "standstill", or similar provision of any agreement to which any of the Acquired Corporations is a party; or (vi) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or similar document or any Contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction or modify or amend any provision in any Contract in connection with any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, this Section 5.3 shall not prohibit the Company from furnishing information regarding the Acquired Corporations to, or participating in discussions or negotiations with, any Person (and waiving such Person's noncompliance with the provisions of any confidentiality or "standstill" provision) in response to an unsolicited bona-fide written Acquisition Proposal that is submitted after the date of this Agreement to the Company by such Person (and not withdrawn) if (A) such Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of this Section 5.3(a), (B) the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, that (1) such bona-fide written Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Offer or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Offer and (2) the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Company Board to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements, (C) prior to furnishing such information, the Company receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement in a customary form that is no less restrictive to the other party than the Confidentiality Agreement is to Parent, provided that such confidentiality agreement need not contain any "standstill" provision (each, an "Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement"), and (D) the Company concurrently (x) notifies Parent that it is furnishing information to, or entering into discussions with, such Person and (y) if it is furnishing information to such Person, furnishes all such information to Parent (to the extent such information has not been previously furnished or made available by the Company to Parent or Parent's Representatives). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company acknowledges and agrees that any action by a Representative of the Company which would constitute a breach of any of the restrictions set forth above if taken by the Company or any Acquired Corporation, whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of the Company or any Acquired Corporation, shall be deemed to constitute a breach of this Section 5.3 by the Company.

(b) During the Pre-Closing Period, the Company shall promptly (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after receipt thereof) advise Parent orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal, any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal (including a request for nonpublic information relating to any of the Acquired Corporations), including (i) the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request, (ii) the material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request, and (iii) an unredacted copy of all written materials provided in connection with such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request. After receipt of the Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest or request, the Company shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) keep Parent informed of any material change in status, terms and pertinent details of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request (including by providing prompt notice of all material amendments or proposed material amendments thereto) and shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) provide to Parent an unredacted copy of written materials subsequently provided in connection with such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request.

(c) As of the date of this Agreement, the Company shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions with any Person (other than Parent or Purchaser) that relate to any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request that could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly (but in no event later than forty-eight (48) hours following the execution of this Agreement) demand that each Person that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement with the Company or any of its Affiliates or Subsidiaries or any of its or their Representatives with respect to such Person's consideration of a possible Acquisition Proposal to immediately return or destroy all confidential information heretofore furnished by the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of its or their Affiliates or Representatives to such Person, its Subsidiaries or any of its or their Affiliates or Representatives, pursuant to the terms of such confidentiality agreement.

(d) None of the Company, the Company Board or any committee thereof shall (i)(A) withhold, fail to include in (or remove from) the Schedule 14D-9, withdraw or qualify or modify, in either case, in a manner adverse to Parent or Purchaser, the Company Board Recommendation or (B) approve, recommend, submit to stockholders for approval and adoption or declare advisable any Acquisition Proposal (any action described in this clause (i) being referred to as an "Adverse Change Recommendation"), except as expressly permitted by Section 5.3(e) or 5.3(f).

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, at any time prior to Purchaser accepting, for the first time, for payment Shares validly tendered and not properly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer (the “Offer Acceptance Time”), the Company Board may make an Adverse Change Recommendation or terminate this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement if and only if, in the event of a Superior Offer: (i) such Superior Offer did not result from a breach of Section 5.3(a); (ii) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company’s outside legal counsel, that the failure to make the Adverse Change Recommendation or terminate this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Company Board to the Company’s stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; (iii) Parent shall have received from the Company prior written notice of the Company’s intention to make an Adverse Change Recommendation or terminate this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement at least four (4) Business Days prior to making any Adverse Change Recommendation or terminating this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement (a “Change of Recommendation Notice”); and (iv) the Company shall comply with clauses (A) through (E) as follows: (A) prior to giving effect to clauses (B) through (E), the Company Board shall have determined that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Offer; (B) the Company shall have provided to Parent in writing the material terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal and unredacted copies of all material documents relating to such Acquisition Proposal in accordance with Section 5.3(b); (C) the Company shall have negotiated in good faith with Parent (and caused its Representatives to negotiate with Parent) during the four (4) Business Day period provided in the foregoing clause (iii) of this Section 5.3(e) with respect to any proposed revisions to this Agreement or other proposals made by Parent, if any, so that the Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Offer; (D) after considering the results of negotiations with Parent and taking into account the proposals made by Parent, if any, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, the Company Board shall have determined in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Offer and that the failure to make the Adverse Change Recommendation or terminate this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement would be likely to constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Company Board to the Company’s stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; and (E) if the Company intends to terminate this Agreement to enter into a Specified Agreement, the Company shall have complied with Section 8.1(e). For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 5.3(e) shall also apply to any material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal or any successive Acquisition Proposals (except that any reference to four (4) Business Days shall instead be two (2) Business Days). Nothing contained in this Section 5.3(e) shall prohibit the Company Board from (x) taking and disclosing to the stockholders of the Company a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or making a statement contemplated by Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A or Rule 14d-9(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act, and (y) making any disclosure to the Company’s stockholders that the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that the failure to make such disclosure would constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the Company’s stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; provided, that in either case, any such disclosure does not contain an Adverse Change Recommendation. Neither the Company nor the Company Board shall be permitted to recommend that the Company stockholders tender any securities in connection with any tender or exchange offer or otherwise approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, unless in each case, in connection therewith, the Company Board effects an Adverse Change Recommendation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, at any time prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, the Company Board may make an Adverse Change Recommendation with respect to an Intervening Event that does not relate to an Acquisition Proposal if and only if: (i) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company’s outside legal counsel, that the failure to make the Adverse Change Recommendation would be reasonably likely to constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Company Board to the Company’s stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; (ii) Parent shall have received from the Company a Change of Recommendation Notice at least four (4) Business Days prior to making any Adverse Change of Recommendation, describing the Intervening Event in reasonable detail; (iii) during such four (4) Business Day period, the Company shall have negotiated in good faith with Parent (and caused its Representatives to negotiate with Parent) with respect to any proposed revisions to this Agreement or other proposals made by Parent, if any, that would obviate the need to make an Adverse Change Recommendation; and (iv) after considering the results of negotiations with Parent and taking into account the proposals made by Parent, if any, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, the Company Board shall have determined in good faith that the failure to make the Adverse Change Recommendation would be likely to constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Company Board to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements. The provisions of this Section 5.3(f) shall also apply to any material change to the facts and circumstances relating to an Intervening Event, in which case such change shall require a new Change of Recommendation Notice and the Company shall be required to comply again with the provisions of this Section 5.3(f).

(g) Except immediately prior to the entry into a Specified Agreement that is entered into in compliance with the terms of this Section 5.3 and Section 8.1(e), the Company shall not amend, waive or modify the Rights Plan or waive the application of any Takeover Law or similar Legal Requirement.

ARTICLE 6

Additional Covenants of the Parties

Section 6.1 Filings and Approvals.

(a) Without limiting the generality of anything contained in this Section 6.1, the Company and Parent shall cooperate with each other and use (and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to use) commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under this Agreement and Legal Requirements to consummate and make effective the Transactions as soon as reasonably practicable, including preparing and filing as promptly as reasonably practicable all documentation to effect all necessary notices, reports and other filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all consents, registrations, approvals, permits and authorizations necessary or advisable to be obtained from any Governmental Body or other Person in connection with the consummation of the Transactions.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of the Company, Parent and Purchaser shall (and they shall cause their respective Affiliates, if applicable, to): (i) promptly, but in no event later than November 15, 2013 (or such later date that the Company and Parent may mutually agree to), file (and in any event the Company shall file within five (5) days after Parent files (or, if the fifth day is a Saturday or Sunday, the next subsequent Business Day)) any and all notices, reports and other documents required to be filed by such party under the HSR Act with respect to the Offer and the Merger and the other Transactions; and shall use commercially reasonable efforts promptly to cause the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act; (ii) as promptly as reasonably practicable provide such information as may reasonably be requested by any Governmental Body in connection with the Transactions as well as any information required to be submitted to comply with a request for additional information in order to commence or end a statutory waiting period; and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken, on a timely basis, all other actions necessary or appropriate for the purpose of consummating and effectuating the Transactions; provided that the Acquired Corporations will only be required to take or commit to take any such action, or agree to any such condition or restriction, if such action, commitment, agreement, condition or restriction is binding on the Acquired Corporations only in the event the Closing occurs; and provided, further, that, subject to the requirements set forth in Section 6.1(d), the Acquired Corporations shall only be permitted to take or commit to take any such action, or agree to any such condition or restriction, with the prior written consent of Parent.

(c) Without limiting the generality of anything contained in this Section 6.1, subject to any applicable Legal Requirements, each party hereto shall (i) give the other parties prompt notice of the making or commencement of any request, inquiry, investigation, action or Legal Proceeding by or before any Governmental Body with respect to the Transactions of which such party had knowledge, (ii) keep the other parties reasonably informed as to the status of any such request, inquiry, investigation, action or Legal Proceeding and (iii) promptly inform the other parties of any communication to or from the FTC, DOJ or any other Governmental Body to the extent regarding the Transactions or regarding any such request, inquiry, investigation, action or Legal Proceeding, and provide a copy of all written communications. Parent and the Company shall have the right to review (and have their respective counsel review) in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult the other on, all material information relating to Parent or the Company, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries that appears in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any Governmental Body in connection with the Offer and the Transactions and shall consider in good faith all comments reasonably proposed by Parent or the Company, as the case may be. In addition, each party hereto will (A) except as may be prohibited by any Legal Requirement, permit authorized Representatives of the other party to have access to and be consulted in connection with any proposed written material communication to any Governmental Body in connection with the Transactions contemplated hereby, and (B) as circumstances reasonably permit, consult with the other party in advance of any meeting or conference with a Governmental Body relating to the Transactions and give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences.

(d) Nothing in this Section 6.1 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall require, or be construed to require, Parent or any of its Affiliates (including Purchaser) to (i) propose, negotiate, commit to or effect, by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, before or after the Effective Time, the sale, divestiture, licensing or disposition of any assets or businesses of Parent or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates, or of the Acquired Corporations, (ii) otherwise take or commit to take any action that would limit the freedom of action of Parent, its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation and the Acquired Corporations) or Affiliates with respect to, or would limit Parent's or its Affiliates' ability to retain, any of the businesses, product lines or assets of Parent or its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation and the Acquired Corporations) in each case as may be required to avoid the entry of, or to effect the dismissal or termination of, any injunction, temporary restraining order or other order in any Legal Proceeding, or (iii) defend any lawsuit or other Legal Proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the Offer, the Merger or any of the other Transactions (other than the defense against any request for preliminary relief).

Section 6.2 ESPP Purchase Rights. As soon as administratively practicable following the date of this Agreement, but not later than the day immediately prior to the date on which the first (1st) offering period that is regularly scheduled to commence under the ESPP after the date of this Agreement, the Company and the Company Board shall take all actions necessary or required under the ESPP (including, if appropriate, amending the terms of the ESPP) and Legal Requirements to (a) suspend the ESPP so that no further offering periods shall commence after the date of this Agreement; (b) limit the number of participation increases during any offering period to zero; and (c) cause the ESPP to terminate as of the Effective Time.

Section 6.3 Employee Benefits.

(a) Parent agrees that as of the Closing Date and until December 31, 2014 (or until termination of employment, if earlier) (the "Benefits Continuation Period") Parent shall provide or cause the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective Subsidiaries or Affiliates to provide those employees of the Acquired Corporations who are legally employed in the United States of America and who continue their employment with Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation after the Effective Time ("Continuing Employees") with health and welfare benefits, within the meaning of Section 3(1) of ERISA, that are not substantially less favorable, in the aggregate, than the health and welfare benefits provided to such employees immediately prior to the Effective Time under those Employee Plans that are welfare plans, within the meaning of Section 3(1), or, in Parent's sole discretion, the health and welfare benefits provided by Parent to similar situated employees of Parent. In addition, Parent shall make commercially reasonable efforts to cause Continuing Employees to be eligible to participate in Parent's other employee benefit plans as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time (subject to the terms of such plans and applicable Legal Requirements) to substantially the same extent as similarly situated employees of Parent. Each Continuing Employee will receive credit for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting under each employee benefit plan sponsored by Parent or its Subsidiaries in which such Continuing Employee participates or is eligible to participate after the Effective Time (each, a "Parent Plan") for years of service with the Acquired Corporations (or any predecessors) prior to the Effective Time, but only to the extent such service was taken into account for such purposes under the analogous Employee Plan. During the Benefits Continuation Period, Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each Parent Plan that is a group health plan (i) to waive any and all pre-existing condition limitations, eligibility waiting periods and evidence of insurability requirements with respect to Continuing Employees to the extent waived, satisfied or not included under the analogous Employee Plan, and (ii) to recognize for each Continuing Employee for purposes of applying annual deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket maximums under such Parent Plan any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses paid by the Continuing Employee and his or her spouse or dependents under the analogous Benefit Plan during the plan year of such Employee Plan in which occurs the later of the Effective Time and the date on which Continuing Employee begins participating in such Parent Plan.

(b) Between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the Acquired Corporations shall use all reasonable efforts to assist Parent in entering into Parent's standard "on-boarding" documents with each of the Continuing Employees, which documents will be effective at the Effective Time and shall constitute (i) at-will agreements, (ii) proprietary information and inventions agreements, (iii) mutual agreements to arbitrate claims, and (iv) background check agreements, copies of which have previously been provided to the Company.

(c) Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to (i) terminate each Employee Plan that is intended to constitute a 401(k) plan of any Acquired Corporation (each, a "Company 401(k) Plan") effective no later than the day immediately preceding the Closing Date, (ii) adopt any and all amendments to each Company 401(k) Plan as may be necessary to ensure compliance with all applicable requirements of the Code (including all qualification requirements), and (iii) take such other actions in connection with the termination of any Company 401(k) Plan as Parent may reasonably request, unless Parent notifies the Company in writing at least five (5) days prior to the Closing Date that termination of such Company 401(k) Plan is not necessary. Unless Parent provides the notice described in the preceding sentence to the Company, the Company shall, prior to the Closing Date, provide Parent with evidence reasonably satisfactory to Parent that (x) each Company 401(k) Plan has been terminated effective no later than the day before the Closing Date pursuant to resolutions of the Company Board or the board of directors (or equivalent governing body) of the sponsoring Subsidiary, as applicable, (y) each Company 401(k) Plan has been amended as described above, and (z) all other actions reasonably requested by Parent have been completed (and the form and substance of the resolutions and amendments referred to herein shall be subject to the prior reasonable review and approval of Parent).

(d) With respect to all employees, the Acquired Corporations shall be responsible for providing any notices required to be given and otherwise complying with the WARN or similar statutes or regulations of any jurisdiction relating to any plant closing or mass layoff (or similar triggering event) caused by the Acquired Corporations prior to the Effective Time. If, prior to the Effective Time, Parent determines that an event would trigger WARN obligations (or obligations arising under similar statutes or regulations) within sixty (60) days following the Effective Time, the Acquired Corporations shall, at Parent's request, provide notices to all employees as are required to be provided under WARN (or any similar statute or regulation), in a form that is compliant with applicable regulations.

(e) Nothing in this Section 6.3 or elsewhere in this Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended nor shall be construed to (i) be treated as an amendment to any particular Employee Plan, (ii) prevent Parent from amending or terminating any of its benefit plans in accordance their terms, (iii) create a right in any employee to employment with Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any other Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation and the employment of each Continuing Employee shall be "at will" employment or (iv) create any third-party beneficiary rights in any employee of the Acquired Corporations or the Surviving Corporation, any beneficiary or dependent thereof, or any collective bargaining representative thereof, with respect to the compensation, terms and conditions of employment and/or benefits that may be provided to any Continuing Employee by Parent or any Acquired Corporation or under any benefit plan which Parent, any Acquired Corporation or the Surviving Corporation may maintain.

(f) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take all actions reasonably necessary to effectuate this Section 6.3 (including providing any required notices and obtaining any required consents).

(g) The Company shall provide Parent with drafts of, and a reasonable opportunity to comment upon, all resolutions and other written actions as may be required to effectuate the provisions of this Section 6.3. For purpose of the foregoing sentence, a reasonable opportunity shall mean at least three (3) Business Days prior to the adoption of the resolution or taking of the action.

Section 6.4 Indemnification of Officers and Directors.

(a) From and after the Effective Time until the six (6) year anniversary of the Closing, the Surviving Corporation shall (and if the Surviving Corporation for any reason cannot, the Parent shall) indemnify and hold harmless the individuals who at any time prior to the Effective Time were directors or officers of an Acquired Corporation (the "Indemnified Parties") against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements), judgments, fines, losses, claims, settlements, damages or liabilities in connection with actions or omissions occurring or alleged to have occurred at or prior to the Effective Time and advance expenses with respect thereto, in each case as provided, as applicable, in the certificates of incorporation and bylaws (or comparable organizational documents) of the Acquired Corporations, and in any indemnification agreements between such Acquired Corporation and any Indemnified Party entered into prior to the date hereof and a copy of which has been provided to Parent. From and after the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain the provisions with respect to indemnification and advancement of expenses as set forth on Exhibits B and C hereto, and any indemnification agreements between the Company and any Indemnified Party shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, and such provisions and agreements shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years after the Closing Date in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the Indemnified Parties, unless such modification is required by applicable Legal Requirements. If, at any time prior to the six (6) year anniversary of the Effective Time, any Indemnified Party delivers to Parent or the Surviving Corporation a written notice asserting in good faith a claim for indemnification under this Section 6.4(a), then the claim asserted in such notice shall survive the six (6) year anniversary of the Effective Time until such time as such claim is fully and finally resolved.

(b) Parent shall cause to be maintained in effect for not less than six (6) years from the Effective Time the policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Acquired Corporations as of the date hereof (or such other insurance policy with substantially similar coverage and with terms and conditions that are not less advantageous in any material respect than the Acquired Corporation's existing policies) for the Indemnified Parties and any other employees, agents or other individuals otherwise covered by such insurance policies prior to the Effective Time (collectively, the "Insured Parties") with respect to matters occurring or alleged to have occurred at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement); provided, however, that in lieu of the purchase of such insurance by Parent or the Surviving Corporation, the Company may at its option prior to the Effective Time instruct its authorized insurance broker to procure for the Company a fully prepaid, non-cancellable six (6)-year run-off program for directors' and officers' liability insurance providing at least the same coverage with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the Effective Time and obtained from the same or similar insurance carriers that currently provide the Company's director and officer liability insurance; provided that if the aggregate annual premiums for such run-off program exceeds 250% of the per annum rate of premium paid by the Company as of the date hereof for their existing officers' and directors' liability insurance policies, then the Company shall procure the maximum coverage that will then be available at an equivalent annual premium equal to 250% of such rate; provided, further, that the Company's procurement of such fully prepaid run-off policy in accordance with this sentence shall be deemed to satisfy in full the obligations of Parent and Surviving Corporation pursuant to this Section 6.4(b).

(c) In the event that Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and is not the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys a majority of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors, assigns and transferees of Parent or the Surviving Corporation or their respective successors or assigns, as the case may be, assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.4.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.4 shall survive the acceptance of Shares for payment pursuant to the Offer and the consummation of the Merger and are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each of the Indemnified Parties and their successors, assigns and heirs and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (A) the obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation or its successor shall be subject to any limitation imposed by applicable Legal Requirements (including any limitation on the Company's ability to indemnify its own directors and officers), and (B) Parent shall have no obligation to maintain the existence of the Surviving Corporation following the Effective Time.

Section 6.5 Securityholder Litigation. The Company shall promptly notify Parent of any such securityholder litigation brought, or threatened, against the Company, members of the Company Board with respect to any of the Transactions and shall give Parent the opportunity to consult with the Company with regard to, and participate in but not control, the defense and settlement of any such litigation. Without limiting the foregoing, but subject to Section 6.1, the Company shall give Parent the right to review and comment on all material filings or responses to be made by the Company in connection with any such litigation against the Company, the Company Board or any officer or director of an Acquired Corporation (or any similar litigation involving any of the Acquired Corporations) relating to the Transactions, and the right to consult on the settlement with respect to such litigation, and the Company will in good faith take such comments into account, and, no such settlement shall be agreed to without Parent's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

Section 6.6 Third Party Consents. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to use commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain waivers and consents from any and all third parties with respect to each Contract listed in Part 6.6 of the Company Disclosure Schedule; provided, that, in connection with obtaining such waivers and consents, the Company shall not agree to any change to such Contracts that would be materially adverse to the interest of the Company, its Subsidiaries or, after the Merger, Parent without the prior written consent of Parent.

Section 6.7 Pledge Releases. The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to de-register or cause the de-registration of the pledges that were registered relating to the Credit Agreement, dated June 27, 2003, as amended, by and between the Company and Conexant Systems, Inc.

Section 6.8 Publicity. Parent and the Company shall consult with each other and provide each other the reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon any press release or other public announcement with respect to the Offer, the Merger or any of the other Transactions before issuing any such press release or public announcement to the extent possible, and such party will consider such comments in good faith; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply to: (a) any press release or public announcement made with respect to the Transactions that is not inconsistent with, or more expansive in any material respect than, any prior press release or public announcement validly made in accordance with this Section 6.8; (b) any press release or other public announcement as may be required by any applicable Legal Requirement; and (c) communications permitted pursuant to Section 5.3, including any release or announcement made with respect to an Superior Offer or Adverse Change Recommendation.

Section 6.9 Resignation of Directors. The Company shall obtain and deliver to Parent on or prior to the Offer Acceptance Time the resignation of the Company's and any other Acquired Corporation's directors as required by Section 1.3.

Section 6.10 Takeover Laws.

(a) If any Takeover Law may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the Transactions, the Company and the Company Board will grant such approvals and take all reasonable actions as are necessary so that the Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms and conditions contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate the effect of any Takeover Law on any of the Transactions.

(b) The Company shall cause the Rights Plan to terminate upon the Effective Time. The Company has taken and will continue to take all actions necessary so that neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the Transactions will cause any rights to be granted under the Rights Plan or cause the rights previously granted under the Rights Plan to become exercisable.

Section 6.11 Notification of Changes. Prior to the Effective Time, each of the Company and Parent will give prompt notice to the other (and will subsequently keep the other informed of any material developments related to such notice) upon its becoming aware of the occurrence or existence of any change, event, occurrence, fact, circumstance, effect or other matter that (a) has, (i) with respect to the Company, had or would reasonably be expected to result in any Material Adverse Effect and (ii) with respect to Parent or Purchaser, had or would reasonably be expected to have any material adverse effect with respect to the ability of Parent or Purchaser to consummate the Transactions, (b) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained herein or (c) is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions set forth in Article 7 or in Annex I not being able to be satisfied prior to the End Date; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 6.11 shall not cure any breach of any representation or warranty requiring disclosure of such matter prior to the date of this Agreement or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to any party hereto; provided, further, that, so long as the party entitled to notice was not prejudiced by such failure, the failure to deliver any notice pursuant to this Section 6.11 shall not be deemed to be a failure to satisfy a closing condition unless the underlying facts had caused such condition not to be satisfied.

Section 6.12 Section 16 Matters. The Company Board shall, to the extent necessary, take appropriate action, prior to or as of the Offer Acceptance Time, to approve, for purposes of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act, the disposition of Shares in the Offer and the deemed disposition and cancellation of Shares and, as applicable, Company Stock Options, Company Stock-Based Awards and Shares purchased pursuant to the exercise of ESPP Purchase Rights in the Merger by applicable individuals.

Section 6.13 Stock Exchange Delisting; Deregistration. Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall cooperate with Parent and use all reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under applicable Legal Requirements and rules and policies of NASDAQ to enable the delisting by the Surviving Corporation of the Shares from NASDAQ and the deregistration of the Shares under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, and in any event no more than ten (10) days after the Closing Date.

Section 6.14 Rule 14d-10. Prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, the Company (acting through the Company Board or its compensation committee) shall take all such steps as may be required to cause to be exempt under Rule 14d-10(d) promulgated under the Exchange Act any employment compensation, severance or other employee benefit arrangement entered into on or after the date hereof by the Company, Parent or any of their respective Affiliates with current or future directors, officers or employees of the Company and its Affiliates and to ensure that any such arrangements fall within the safe harbor provisions of such rule.

Section 6.15 Additional Cooperation. Without limiting the Company's obligations pursuant to Sections 5.2 and 6.1, prior to the Effective Time, upon Parent's request the Company shall reasonably cooperate with Parent in connection with the arrangement of financing by Parent and its lenders, including by (a) providing Parent and its lenders with such documents and information as Parent, its lenders and their respective Representatives may reasonably request, (b) preparing for the release of Encumbrances on the assets of the Acquired Corporations, and (c) obtaining customary payoff letters with respect to any Debt. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until the Effective Time occurs, none of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives shall, (i) have any liability or any obligation to any Person under or in connection with any financing of Parent, including under any credit agreement or any related document or any other agreement or document related to such financing or (ii) be required to incur any other liability in connection with such financing. Parent shall indemnify Company against any liability associated with any such financing, except to the extent arising from the fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct of the Company or any of its Representatives.

Section 6.16 Sale or Restructuring of Wireless Business. If and as requested by Parent or Purchaser, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (a) effect a Wireless Divestiture, including entering into Divestiture Agreements and consummating a Wireless Divestiture, in each case subject to Section 5.2(b)(xviii), and (b) assist Parent and Purchaser to develop a plan to discontinue operations of the Company's wireless business.

ARTICLE 7

Conditions Precedent to The Merger

Section 7.1 Conditions. The obligations of the parties to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

(a) No Restraints. No temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order preventing the consummation of the Merger shall have been issued by any Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction and remain in effect, and there shall not be any Legal Requirement enacted or deemed applicable to the Merger that makes consummation of the Merger illegal.

(b) Consummation of Offer. Purchaser (or Parent on Purchaser's behalf) shall have accepted for payment and paid for all of the Shares validly tendered pursuant to the Offer and not withdrawn.

Section 7.2 Frustration of Conditions. None of the Company, Parent or Purchaser may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.1 or in Annex I to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to act in good faith or use all reasonable efforts to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as required by and subject to Section 6.1.

ARTICLE 8

Termination

Section 8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated prior to the Effective Time:

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company by written notice to the other if a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Body shall have issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling, or shall have taken any other action, having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the acceptance for payment of Shares pursuant to the Offer or the Merger or making consummation of the Offer or the Merger illegal;

(c) by Parent by written notice to the Company at any time prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, if, whether or not permitted to do so, (i) the Company, the Company Board or any committee thereof shall have made an Adverse Change Recommendation, (ii) the Company shall have entered into any definitive agreement or any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet, option agreement or similar Contract with any third party that contemplates or requires an Acquisition Transaction (in each case other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement), (iii) the Company Board fails to publicly reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of a written request by Parent to provide such reaffirmation following the commencement by a third party of a tender offer or exchange offer related to the Shares or public disclosure of an Acquisition Proposal other than a commenced tender offer or commenced exchange offer or (iv) within ten (10) Business Days following the commencement by a third party of any tender offer or exchange offer related to the Shares, the Company fails to file a Schedule 14D-9 disclosing that the Company recommends rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer;

(d) by either Parent or the Company by written notice to the other if the Offer Acceptance Time shall not have occurred on or prior to the close of business on the 90th day after the date hereof (the "End Date"); provided, however, that neither party shall be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d) if a breach by it of any provision of this Agreement shall have proximately caused the failure of the Offer Acceptance Time to have so occurred;

(e) by the Company by written notice to Parent at any time prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, in order to accept a Superior Offer and enter into the Specified Agreement (as defined below) relating to such Superior Offer, if (i) such Superior Offer shall not have resulted from any breach of Section 5.3, (ii) the Company Board, after satisfying all of the requirements set forth in Section 5.3, shall have authorized the Company to enter into a binding written definitive acquisition agreement providing for the consummation of a transaction constituting a Superior Offer (a "Specified Agreement"); and (iii) the Company shall have paid the Termination Fee and entered into the Specified Agreement concurrently with the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(e);

(f) by Parent by written notice to the Company at any time prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, if a breach of any representation or warranty or failure to perform any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement on the part of the Company shall have occurred that would cause a failure of the conditions in Annex I to be satisfied; provided, however, that, for purposes of this Section 8.1(f), if such a breach is curable by the Company within the earlier of the End Date and thirty (30) days of the date Parent gives the Company notice of such breach and the Company is continuing to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach, then Parent may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(f) on account of such breach unless such breach shall remain uncured upon the earlier of the End Date and the expiration of such thirty (30) day period; or

(g) by the Company by written notice to Parent at any time prior to the Offer Acceptance Time, if a breach of any representation or warranty has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material and adverse effect on Parent's or Purchaser's ability to consummate the Transactions or a failure to perform in any material respect any covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement on the part of Parent shall have occurred; provided, however, that, for purposes of this Section 8.1(g), if such a breach is curable by Parent within the earlier of the End Date and thirty (30) days of the date the Company gives Parent notice of such breach and Parent is continuing to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach, then the Company may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(g) on account of such breach unless such breach shall remain uncured upon the earlier of the End Date and the expiration of such thirty (30) day period.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall be of no further force or effect; provided, however, that (a) this Section 8.2, Section 8.3 and Article 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and shall remain in full force and effect, (b) the Confidentiality Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement and shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms; and (c) the termination of this Agreement shall not relieve any party from any liability for any willful and intentional breach prior to the date of termination.

(c) Any Termination Fee due under this Section 8.3 shall be paid by the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by Parent. For the avoidance of doubt, the Termination Fee shall be payable only once and not in duplication even though the Termination Fee may be payable under one or more provisions hereof. The Company and Parent acknowledge and agree that the agreements contained in this Section 8.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails promptly to pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.3, and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the Termination Fee, the Company shall pay to Parent its costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount of the Termination Fee from the date such payment was required until the date of payment at the prime rate, as published in the Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required to be made.

Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 9.1 Amendment. Prior to the Effective Time, subject to Section 1.3, this Agreement may be amended with the mutual agreement of the Company, Parent and Purchaser at any time. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

Section 9.2 Waiver. No failure on the part of any party to exercise any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, and no delay on the part of any party in exercising any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of such power, right, privilege or remedy; and no single or partial exercise of any such power, right, privilege or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other power, right, privilege or remedy. No party shall be deemed to have waived any claim arising out of this Agreement, or any power, right, privilege or remedy under this Agreement, unless the waiver of such claim, power, right, privilege or remedy is expressly set forth in a written instrument duly executed and delivered on behalf of such party; and any such waiver shall not be applicable or have any effect except in the specific instance in which it is given.

Section 9.3 No Survival of Representations and Warranties. None of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any certificate or schedule or other document delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Merger.

Section 9.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the Company Disclosure Schedules and each of the exhibits, schedules and other agreements referred to herein, and the Confidentiality Agreement (to the extent incorporated herein) constitute the entire agreement and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among or between any of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof; provided, however, that the Confidentiality Agreement shall not be superseded and shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

Section 9.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. At the Closing, signature pages of counterparts may be exchanged by facsimile or by electronic transmittal of scanned images thereof, in each case subject to appropriate customary confirmations in respect thereof by the signatory for the party providing a facsimile or scanned image and that party's Closing counsel.

Section 9.6 Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement, and any action, dispute or controversy arising out of, relating to, or in connection with this Agreement, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws thereof. In any action, dispute or controversy between any of the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement: (i) each of the parties irrevocably and unconditionally consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if (and only if) the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any federal court sitting in the State of Delaware); (ii) irrevocably waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action, dispute or controversy in any such court or that such action, dispute or controversy was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same; (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action, dispute or controversy relating to this Agreement or the Transactions in any court other than the aforesaid courts; and (iv) each of the parties irrevocably consents to service of process by first class certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address at which such party is to receive notice in accordance with Section 9.11.

Section 9.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ANY ACTION, DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION, DISPUTE OR CONTROVERSY ARISING OUT OF, RELATING TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE TRANSACTIONS. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES, AGREES AND CERTIFIES THAT: (a) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO PREVENT OR DELAY ENFORCEMENT OF EITHER OF SUCH WAIVERS; (b) IT UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH WAIVERS; (c) IT MAKES SUCH WAIVERS VOLUNTARILY; AND (d) IT HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.7.

Section 9.8 Specific Performance; Remedies. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur and that the parties would not have any adequate remedy at law in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached or the Offer were revoked, withdrawn, amended, modified or supplemented prior to the Expiration Date other than in the accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to seek an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement, to prevent revocation, withdrawal, modification or supplementation of the Offer prior to the Expiration Date and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Offer and the Merger, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Purchaser, on the other hand, hereby agree not to raise any objections to the availability or issuance of an injunction or injunctions, or to any other remedy a party (or parties) are entitled in equity, to prevent breaches of this Agreement by such party (or parties), to prevent revocation, withdrawal, modification or supplementation of the Offer prior to the Expiration Date and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Offer and the Merger; provided that the foregoing shall in no way limit the ability of the parties to challenge or defend the merits of any such action. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

Section 9.9 Assignability. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto, in whole or in part (whether by operation of law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other parties, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall be null and void, except that (a) Purchaser may assign, in its sole discretion, any or all of its rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to any entity that is wholly-owned directly by Parent without the consent of the Company and (b) Parent may assign, in its sole discretion, any or all of its rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to any entity that is wholly-owned directly by Parent without the consent of the Company, provided that Parent shall not be relieved of any of its obligations hereunder.

2.5 Manner of Giving Notice; Affidavit of Notice

Written notice of any meeting of stockholders, if mailed, is given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at the address of such stockholder as it appears on the records of the corporation. Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to stockholders, any notice to stockholders under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws or otherwise may be given by a form of electronic transmission that satisfies the requirements of the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

An affidavit of the secretary, an assistant secretary, the transfer agent or other agent of the corporation that the notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

2.6 Validation of Meetings; Waiver of Notice; Consent

Whenever notice is required to be given under any provision of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a written waiver thereof signed by the person entitled to notice, or a waiver by electronic transmission by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting and does object, at the beginning of the meeting or upon arrival of such person, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the stockholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice or any waiver by electronic transmission, unless so required by the Certificate of Incorporation.

2.7 Quorum

The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the matter at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law of Delaware or by the Certificate of Incorporation, provided, however, that where a separate vote by a class or series is required with respect to the matter, a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or series, present in person or represented by proxy, shall also be required for a quorum with respect to the matter. If, however, such quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, then the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present or represented. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting other than solely to object to holding the meeting or transacting business, it shall be deemed present for the remainder of the meeting and any adjournment (unless a new record date is or must be set for the adjourned meeting), notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

2.8 Adjourned Meeting; Notice

The chairperson of the meeting or the holders of a majority of the stock so represented may in his, her or their discretion adjourn the meeting from time to time, whether or not there is such a quorum. When a meeting is adjourned, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place (if any) thereof, and the means of remote communications (if any), by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting, are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. At the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

2.9 Voting

The stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.11, subject to the provisions of Sections 217 and 218 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware (relating to voting rights of fiduciaries, pledgors and joint owners of stock and to voting trusts and other voting agreements).

Except as may be otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation or by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, (i) each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder, (ii) directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors, and (iii) every matter other than the election of directors shall be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter that are present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and are voted for or against the matter.

2.10 Stockholder Action by Written Consent Without a Meeting

Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required by the General Corporation Law of Delaware to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of a corporation, or any action that may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted, provided, however, that an action by written consent to elect directors, unless such action is unanimous, may be in lieu of the holding of an annual meeting only if all the directorships to which directors could be elected at an annual meeting held at the effective time of such action are vacant and are filled by such action.

Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent, and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to in such consent unless written consents signed by the requisite number of stockholders required to take the action are delivered to the corporation within 60 days of the earliest dated consent delivered to the corporation in the manner required by this Section 2.10. Delivery to the corporation shall be by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, principal place of business or secretary or assistant secretary, if any, and, except for deliveries to the corporation's registered office in the State of Delaware, may be by electronic transmission to the extent permitted by Section 228 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, including to the extent and in the manner provided by resolution of the Board of Directors. Any such consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a meeting of the stockholders.

Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of stockholders to take action were delivered to the corporation.

2.11 Record Date for Stockholder Notice, Voting or Giving Consents

In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, entitled to express consent to an action in writing without a meeting, entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix a record date. Such record date shall not (i) precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, (ii) be more than 60 or fewer than 10 days before the date of such meeting, (iii) be more than 10 days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date for an action by written consent in lieu of a meeting is adopted by the Board of Directors, or (iv) be more than 60 days prior to any other action.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date:

(i) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held;

(ii) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation; or

(iii) The record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

2.12 Proxies

Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by a written proxy or by an electronic transmission indicating such proxy, signed by the stockholder and filed with the secretary of the corporation, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A proxy with respect to a specific meeting shall entitle the proxy holder to vote at any reconvened meeting following adjournment of such meeting, but shall not be valid after the final adjournment of such meeting. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the stockholder's name is placed on the proxy or the electronic transmission indicating such proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic transmission or otherwise) by the stockholder or the stockholder's attorney-in-fact. The revocability of a proxy that states on its face that it is irrevocable shall be governed by the provisions of Section 212(e) of the General Corporation Law of Delaware. A stockholder may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder as proxy by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of a telegram, cablegram or other means of electronic transmission to the intended holder of the proxy or to a proxy solicitation firm, proxy support service or similar agent duly authorized by the intended proxy holder to receive such transmission, provided that any such telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission must set forth (or be accompanied by information from which it can be determined) that the telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission was authorized by the stockholder. Any copy, facsimile telecommunication or other reliable reproduction of the writing or transmission by which a stockholder has authorized another person to act as proxy for such stockholder may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any and all purposes for which the original writing or transmission could be used, provided that such copy, facsimile telecommunication or other reproduction shall be a complete reproduction of the entire original writing or transmission.

2.13 List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote

The officer of the corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation shall prepare and make, at least 10 days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Nothing contained in this Section 2.13 shall require the corporation to include electronic mail addresses or other electronic contact information on such list. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, for a period of at least 10 days prior to the meeting (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation. In the event that the corporation determines to make the list available on an electronic network, the corporation may take reasonable steps to ensure that such information is available only to stockholders of the corporation. If the meeting is to be held at a place, then the list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, then the list shall also be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access such list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting. The stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to the identity of the stockholders entitled to examine the list or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

2.14 Conduct of Meeting of Stockholders

The chairperson of the Board of Directors, or in the chairperson's absence, the chief executive officer, or in the absence of the chief executive officer, the secretary, or in the absence of the secretary, any executive vice president, or in the absence of an executive vice president, a chairperson chosen by a majority of the directors present, shall act as chairperson of the meetings of the stockholders. The Board of Directors shall be entitled to make such rules or regulations for the conduct of meetings of stockholders as it shall deem necessary, appropriate or convenient. Subject to such rules and regulations of the Board of Directors, if any, the chairperson of the meeting shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such chairperson, are necessary, appropriate or convenient for the proper conduct of the meeting, including establishing an agenda or order of business for the meeting; rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; limitations on participation in the meeting to stockholders of record of the corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies and such other persons as the chairperson shall permit; restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants; and regulation of the opening and closing of the polls for balloting and matters which are to be voted on by ballot.

ARTICLE 3 DIRECTORS

3.1 Powers

Subject to the provisions of General Corporation Law of Delaware and any limitations in the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws relating to actions required to be approved by the stockholders or by the outstanding shares, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

3.2 Number of Directors

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. In addition, subject to any agreement among stockholders, the stockholders of the corporation shall have the power to reduce the authorized number of directors by vote at a meeting or by written consent.

3.3 Election and Term of Office of Directors

Except as provided in Section 3.4 in connection with filling vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors, directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of stockholders and shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until the successor of such director is elected and qualified or until the death, resignation or removal of such director.

3.4 Resignation, Removal and Vacancies

Any director may resign at any time upon notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the corporation. Any such resignation shall be effective upon delivery, unless the notice of resignation specifies a future effective date, and unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be a precondition to its effectiveness. A resignation that is conditioned upon the director failing to receive a specified vote for reelection as a director may provide that it is irrevocable. When one or more directors so resign and the resignation is effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective, and each director so chosen shall hold office as provided in Section 3.3.

Unless otherwise restricted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, by the Certification of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the stockholders may enter into voting agreements that restrict their rights to remove directors or that obligate them to vote to remove directors only as permitted by such agreement.

No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before that director's term of office expires.

Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws:

(i) Vacancies for any reason and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, or by the stockholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called by the Board of Directors for that purpose; or

(ii) Whenever the holders of any class or series of stock are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, vacancies and newly created directorships of such class or series may, unless otherwise set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or series then in office, by a sole remaining director so elected, or by the stockholders of such class or series at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called by the Board of Directors for that purpose (or by written consent of such stockholders in lieu of such a meeting).

Directors appointed to fill vacancies and newly created directorships shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until the successor of such director is elected and qualified or until the death, resignation or removal of such director.

3.5 Place of Meetings; Meetings by Telephone

The Board of Directors may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or outside the State of Delaware. Members of the Board of Directors, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any committee meeting, by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

3.6 Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on such dates and at such times and places as the Board of Directors may determine by resolution. Such regularly scheduled meetings may be held without further notice to the directors.

3.7 Special Meetings; Notice

Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairperson of the Board of Directors, the president, the secretary, or any two directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held upon four days' notice by mail or 24 hours' notice delivered personally, by telephone (including a voice messaging system or other system or technology designed to record and communicate messages), or by other form of electronic transmission. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated either to the director or to a person at the office of the director who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the director. A notice, or waiver of notice, need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.8 Quorum

A majority of the total number of directors fixed or determined by or in the manner provided in these Bylaws, or, if one or more vacancies exist on the Board of Directors, a majority of the total number of directors then serving on the Board of Directors, provided, however, that such number may be not less than one-third of the total authorized number of directors fixed or determined by or in the manner provided in these Bylaws, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, except as may otherwise be specifically provided by the General Corporation Law of Delaware or the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. The vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws shall require a vote of a greater number. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, then the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or at a meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors, at which any action is taken shall be deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (i) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon the director's arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting any business at such meeting, (ii) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or (iii) the director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment. The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

3.9 Waiver of Notice

Whenever notice is required to be given to a director under any provision of the General Corporation Law of Delaware or of the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Without limiting the manner by which such waiver may otherwise be delivered effectively, such waiver shall be deemed delivered if made by electronic transmission. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting and does object, at the beginning of the meeting or upon the director's arrival, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the directors, or members of a committee of directors, need be specified in any written waiver of notice unless so required by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

3.10 Board Action by Written Consent Without a Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing or by electronic transmission and the writing or writings or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee. Such filing shall be in paper form if the minutes are maintained in paper form and shall be in electronic form if the minutes are maintained in electronic form.

ARTICLE 4 COMMITTEES

4.1 Committees of Directors

The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, with each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. In case of the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors or in these Bylaws, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, subject to the limitations contained in the General Corporate Law of Delaware. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or the resolution of the Board of Directors designating the committee, a committee may create one or more subcommittees, each subcommittee to consist of one or more members of the committee, and delegate to a subcommittee any or all of the powers and authority of the committee.

4.2 Meetings and Action of Committees

Meetings and actions of committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article 3, including, without limitation, Section 3.5 (Place of Meetings; Meetings by Telephone), Section 3.6 (Regular Meetings), Section 3.7 (Special Meetings; Notice), Section 3.8 (Quorum), Section 3.9 (Waiver of Notice) and Section 3.10 (Board Action by Written Consent Without a Meeting), with such changes in the context of those Bylaws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members, provided, however, that the time of regular meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors and that notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. Unless the Board of Directors adopts rules for the governance of a committee, then each committee may adopt its own governance rules, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

OFFICERS

5.1 Officers

The officers of the corporation shall be a president and/or chief executive officer, and a secretary. The corporation may also have, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, a chairperson of the Board of Directors, a chief financial officer, a treasurer, one or more vice presidents, assistant vice presidents, assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers, and any such other officers as may be appointed by the Board of Directors or in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Each officer shall hold office until such officer's successor is elected and qualified or until such officer's earlier resignation or removal.

5.2 Election of Officers

The officers of the corporation, except such officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3, shall be appointed by the Board of Directors.

5.3 Subordinate Officers

The Board of Directors may appoint, or empower the chief executive officer, the president or another officer to appoint or remove, such other officers and agents as the business of the corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in these Bylaws or as the Board of Directors (or, if so empowered, the chief executive officer, the president or another officer) may from time to time determine.

5.4 Removal and Resignation of Officers; Vacancies in Offices

Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

Any officer may resign at any time upon notice given in writing or by electronic transmission to the corporation. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in the notice, provided that the Board of Directors (or if so empowered pursuant to Section 5.3, the chief executive officer, the president or another officer) may treat a resignation given with a future effective date as an immediate resignation. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any resignation is without prejudice to the rights (if any) of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party.

Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation may be filled by the Board of Directors (or if so empowered pursuant to Section 5.3, the chief executive officer, the president or another officer).

5.5 Powers and Duties of Officers Generally

The officers of the corporation shall have such powers and duties in the management of the corporation as shall be stated in these Bylaws or in a resolution of the Board of Directors that are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and, to the extent not so stated, as generally pertain to their respective offices and as are necessary to conduct customary management and operation of the corporation, subject to the control of the Board of Directors. A secretary or such other officer appointed to do so by the Board of Directors shall have the duty to record the proceedings of the meetings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors and any committees in a book to be kept for that purpose.

5.6 Duties of the Chairperson of the Board

The chairperson of the Board of Directors, if one is elected, shall, if present, preside at meetings of the Board of Directors and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned by the Board of Directors or as may be prescribed by these Bylaws. The chairperson shall not be considered an officer of the corporation, unless so designated by the Board of Directors.

5.7 Duties of the Chief Executive Officer

Subject to the control of the Board of Directors and such supervisory powers, if any, as may be given by the Board of Directors, the powers and duties of the chief executive officer of the corporation are:

(i) To act as the general manager and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, to have general supervision, direction and control of the business and affairs of the corporation;

(ii) To preside at all meetings of the stockholders and, in the absence or nonexistence of a chairperson of the Board of Directors or a chair otherwise designated by the Board of Directors at a meeting, at all meetings of the Board of Directors; and

(iii) To affix the signature of the corporation to all deeds, conveyances, mortgages, guarantees, leases, obligations, bonds, certificates and other papers and instruments in writing that have been authorized by the Board of Directors; to sign certificates for shares of stock of the corporation; and, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors, to have general charge of the property of the corporation and to supervise and direct all officers, agents and employees of the corporation.

The president shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation unless the Board of Directors shall designate another officer to be the chief executive officer. If there is no president, and the Board of Directors has not designated any other officer to be the chief executive officer, then the chairperson of the Board of Directors shall be the chief executive officer.

5.8 Duties of the President

Subject to the supervisory powers of the chief executive officer, if there is such an officer and the president is not such officer, and subject to the control of the Board of Directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction and control of the business and the subordinate officers of the corporation. The president shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of president of a corporation, including signing authority similar to the chief executive officer, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws. If no president is appointed, the chief executive officer shall have the power and authority conferred to the president under these Bylaws.

5.9 Duties of the Vice Presidents

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice presidents (if any) in order of their rank as fixed by the Board of Directors or, if not ranked, a vice president designated by the Board of Directors, shall perform all the duties of the president, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the president. The vice presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed for them respectively by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, the chief executive officer or the president.

5.10 Duties of the Secretary

The secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, a book of minutes or record of proceedings of all meetings and actions of directors, committees of directors and stockholders.

The secretary may give, or cause to be given, notice of meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors required to be given by law or by these Bylaws. He or she shall keep the seal of the corporation (if any) in safe custody and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, the chief executive officer or the president.

5.11 Duties of the Chief Financial Officer

The chief financial officer shall be the principal financial officer, and, unless such duty is conferred to another officer by the Board of Directors, the chief accounting officer, of the corporation. The chief financial officer shall have general direction of and supervision over the financial and, if applicable, accounting affairs of the corporation. The chief financial officer shall render to the chief executive officer and the Board of Directors, at regular meetings of the Board of Directors, or whenever they may require it, an account of the financial condition of the corporation. The chief financial officer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, the chief executive officer or the president.

The chief financial officer shall also be the treasurer of the corporation unless otherwise designated by the Board of Directors.

5.12 Duties of the Assistant Secretary

The assistant secretary or, if there is more than one, the assistant secretaries, in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the secretary or in the event of the inability or refusal of such officer to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, the chief executive officer or the president.

5.13 Duties of the Assistant Treasurer

The assistant treasurer or, if there is more than one, the assistant treasurers, in the order determined by the Board of Directors (or if there be no such determination, then in the order of their election), shall, in the absence of the treasurer or in the event of the inability or refusal of such officer to act, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the treasurer and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, these Bylaws, the chief executive officer or the president.

5.14 Salaries

The salaries of the officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors or by any committee or officer to which or whom, as the case may be, the Board of Directors has delegated such authority. No officer shall be disqualified from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation.

ARTICLE 6 INDEMNIFICATION

6.1 Indemnification of Directors and Officers (Other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation)

The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, or, while serving as a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (except in each of the foregoing situations to the extent any agreement, arrangement or understanding of agency contains provisions that supersede or abrogate indemnification under this bylaw) of another corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

6.2 Indemnification of Directors and Officers (Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation)

The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, or, while serving as a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (except in each of the foregoing situations to the extent any agreement, arrangement or understanding of agency contains provisions that supersede or abrogate indemnification under this bylaw) of another corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery of Delaware or such other court shall deem proper.

6.3 Indemnification of Employees and Agents

The corporation shall have the power, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, to indemnify each of its and its majority-owned subsidiaries' employees and agents (other than directors and officers) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee or agent of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries. For purposes of this bylaw, an "employee" or "agent" of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries (other than a director or officer) includes any person: (i) who is or was an employee or agent of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries; (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; or (iii) who was an employee or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.4 Indemnification Against Expenses in Successful Actions

To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of these bylaws, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of such person in connection therewith. If any such person is not wholly successful in any such action, suit or proceeding but is successful, on the merits or otherwise, as to one or more but less than all claims, issues or matters therein, the corporation shall indemnify such person against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of such person in connection with each claim, issue or matter that is successfully resolved. For purposes of this paragraph and without limitation, the termination of any claim, issue or matter by dismissal, with or without prejudice, shall be deemed to be a successful result as to such claim, issue or matter.

6.5 Indemnification Against Expenses as a Witness

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bylaw, to the extent any person is a witness in, but not a party to, any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, or, while serving as a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (except in each of the foregoing situations to the extent any agreement, arrangement or understanding of agency contains provisions that supersede or abrogate indemnification under this bylaw) of another corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, such person shall be indemnified against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by or on behalf of such person in connection therewith.

6.6 Authorization of Indemnification

Indemnification under Sections 6.1 and 6.2 shall be made only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.2. Such determination shall be made by Independent Counsel selected by the claimant in a written opinion to the Board of Directors, a copy of which shall be delivered to the claimant. Any claimant shall be entitled to be indemnified against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such claimant in cooperating with the person or entity making the determination of entitlement to indemnification (irrespective of the determination as to the claimant's entitlement to indemnification) and, to the extent successful, in connection with any litigation or arbitration with respect to such claim or the enforcement thereof.

6.7 Presumption of Right to Indemnification

If a director or officer requests pursuant to Section 6.6 that the determination as to whether the claimant is entitled to indemnification be made by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (in the case of a claimant who is a present or former director or officer of the corporation) or by an officer of the corporation authorized to make such determination (in the case of a claimant who is not a present or former director or officer of the corporation), the claimant shall be conclusively presumed to have been determined pursuant to Section 6.6 to be entitled to indemnification if: (i) in the case of a claimant who is a present or former director or officer of the Corporation: (a)(1) within fifteen days after the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors following receipt by the corporation of the request therefor, the Board of Directors shall not have resolved by majority vote of the Disinterested Directors to submit such determination to: (x) Independent Counsel for its determination; or (y) the stockholders for their determination at the next annual meeting, or any special meeting that may be held earlier, after such receipt; and (2) within sixty days after receipt by the corporation of the request therefor (or within ninety days after such receipt if the Board of Directors in good faith determines that additional time is required by it for the determination and, prior to expiration of such sixty-day period, notifies the claimant thereof), the Board of Directors shall not have made the determination by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors; or (b) after a resolution of the Board of Directors, timely made pursuant to clause (a)(1)(y) above, to submit the determination to the stockholders, the stockholders meeting at which the determination is to be made shall not have been held on or before the date prescribed (or on or before a later date, not to exceed sixty days beyond the original date, to which such meeting may have been postponed or adjourned on good cause by the Board of Directors acting in good faith); or (ii) in the case of a claimant who is not a present or former director or officer of the corporation, within sixty days after receipt by the corporation of the request therefor (or within ninety days after such receipt if an officer of the corporation authorized to make such determination in good faith determines that additional time is required for the determination and, prior to expiration of such sixty-day period, notifies the claimant thereof), an officer of the corporation authorized to make such determination shall not have made the determination; provided, however, that this sentence shall not apply if the claimant has misstated or failed to state a material fact in connection with his or her request for indemnification. Such presumed determination that a claimant is entitled to indemnification shall be deemed to have been made: (A) at the end of the sixty-day or ninety-day period (as the case may be) referred to in clause (i)(a)(2) or (ii) of the immediately preceding sentence; or (B) if the Board of Directors has resolved on a timely basis to submit the determination to the stockholders, on the last date within the period prescribed by law for holding such stockholders meeting (or a postponement or adjournment thereof as permitted above).

6.8 Advancement of Expenses

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding to a present or former director or officer of the corporation, promptly after receipt of a request therefor stating in reasonable detail the expenses incurred, and to a person who is not a present or former director or officer of the corporation as authorized by the chief executive officer of the corporation or such other officer of the corporation as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided that in each case the corporation shall have received an undertaking by or on behalf of the present or former director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this bylaw.

6.9 Procedures for Submissions of Claims

The Board of Directors shall establish reasonable procedures for the submission of claims for indemnification pursuant to these bylaws, determination of the entitlement of any person thereto and review of any such determination. Such procedures shall be set forth in an appendix to these bylaws and shall be deemed for all purposes to be a part hereof.

6.10 Certain Definitions.

For purposes of this Article 6:

(i) "Disinterested Director" means a director of the corporation who is not and was not a party to an action, suit or proceeding in respect of which indemnification is sought by a director, officer, employee or agent.

(ii) "Independent Counsel" means a law firm, or a member of a law firm, that: (a) is experienced in matters of corporation law; (b) neither presently is, nor in the past five years has been, retained to represent the corporation, the director, officer, employee or agent claiming indemnification or any other party to the action, suit or proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this bylaw, in any matter material to the corporation, the claimant or any such other party; and (c) would not, under applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, have a conflict of interest in representing either the corporation or such director, officer, employee or agent in an action to determine the corporation's or such person's rights under this bylaw.

6.11 Nonexclusivity of Rights

The indemnification and advancement of expenses herein provided, or granted pursuant hereto, shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any of those indemnified or eligible for advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or Disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person. In the event the corporation has an indemnification agreement with a director or officer of the corporation and the terms of such agreement are in conflict with the provisions of this bylaw or the procedures established under Section 6.9, then, to the extent permitted by law, the provisions of such indemnification agreement shall control. Notwithstanding any amendment, alteration or repeal of this bylaw or any of its provisions, or of any of the procedures established by the Board of Directors pursuant to Section 6.9, any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan or other enterprise shall be entitled to indemnification in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof with respect to any action taken or omitted prior to such amendment, alteration or repeal except to the extent otherwise required by law.

6.12 Limitation on Indemnification

No indemnification shall be payable pursuant to Article 6 with respect to any action against the corporation commenced by an officer, director, employee or agent unless the Board of Directors shall have authorized the commencement thereof or unless and to the extent that this bylaw or the procedures established pursuant to Section 6.9 shall specifically provide for indemnification of expenses relating to the enforcement of rights under this bylaw and such procedures.

ARTICLE 7 RECORDS AND REPORTS

7.1 Maintenance and Inspection of Share Register and Other Books and Records

The corporation shall keep a record of its stockholders, listing their names and addresses and the number and class of shares held by each stockholder, a copy of these Bylaws as amended to date, accounting books and other records. Stockholders shall have the right to inspect the corporation's stock ledger and its other books and records only to the extent required, and in accordance with, the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

ARTICLE 8 STOCK AND STOCK CERTIFICATES

8.1 Stock Certificates; Partly Paid Shares

No shares of the corporation shall be issued unless authorized by the Board of Directors.

The shares of the corporation shall be represented by certificates unless the Board of Directors provides by resolution that some or all of any or all classes or series of its stock shall be uncertificated shares. Any such resolution shall not apply to shares represented by a certificate until such certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Every holder of stock represented by certificates shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by, or in the name of the corporation by, the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Board of Directors, or the president or any vice-president, and by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer, or the secretary or an assistant secretary, of the corporation representing the number of shares registered in certificate form. The Board of Directors may in its discretion appoint responsible banks or trust companies from time to time to act as transfer agents and registrars of the stock of the corporation, and, when such appointments shall have been made, no stock certificate thereafter issued shall be valid until countersigned by one of such transfer agents and registered by one of such registrars. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate has ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if such person were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

8.2 Special Designation on Certificates

The corporation may restrict the transfer, the registration of transfer and the ownership of its securities. The corporation may place legends or notations on stock certificates or notices to uncertificated stockholders indicating the restrictions, which shall be binding to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

8.3 Lost Certificates

Except as provided in this Section 8.3, no new certificate for shares shall be issued to replace a previously issued certificate unless the latter is surrendered to the corporation and cancelled at the same time. The corporation may issue a new certificate of stock or uncertificated shares in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it that is alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or the legal representative of such owner, to give the corporation a bond or an indemnity sufficient to protect it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate or uncertificated shares.

8.4 Transfer of Stock; Legal Restrictions on Transfer

Subject to the other provisions of this Article 8, including those relating to uncertificated shares and restrictions on transfer, upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, the corporation shall issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction in its books.

Except to the extent that the corporation has obtained an opinion of counsel acceptable to the corporation that transfer restrictions are not required under applicable securities laws, has otherwise satisfied itself that such transfer restrictions are not required or has provided for another acceptable form of legend, all certificates representing shares of the corporation shall bear such legends as may be required by applicable law, including without limitation a legend that reads substantially as follows:

“THE SHARES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR ANY APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAW AND MAY NOT BE SOLD, PLEDGED, OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT EFFECTIVE REGISTRATIONS THEREUNDER OR AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, SATISFACTORY TO THE CORPORATION AND ITS COUNSEL, THAT SUCH REGISTRATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED.”

8.5 Stock Transfer Agreements

The corporation shall have power to enter into and perform any agreement with any number of stockholders of any one or more classes of stock of the corporation to restrict the transfer of shares of stock of the corporation of any one or more classes or series owned by such stockholders in any manner not prohibited by the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

8.6 Registered Stockholders

The corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends and to vote as such owner, shall be entitled to hold liable for calls and assessments the person registered on its books as the owner of shares, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of another person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by the laws of the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE 9
GENERAL MATTERS

9.1 Checks; Drafts; Evidences of Indebtedness

From time to time, the Board of Directors shall determine by resolution which person or persons may sign or endorse all checks, drafts, other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness that are issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, and only the persons so authorized shall sign or endorse those instruments. The Board of Directors may delegate to an office the authority to make such determinations and authorizations.

9.2 Corporate Contracts and Instruments; How Executed

The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless such power is so authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors, provided in these Bylaws, or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or for any amount.

9.3 Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the corporation shall be the same as the calendar year unless otherwise fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

9.4 Seal

The corporation may, but is not required to, adopt a corporate seal, which shall be adopted and which may be altered by the Board of Directors, and may use the same by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

9.5 Representation of Shares of Other Corporations

The chairperson of the Board of Directors, the chief executive officer, the president, any vice president, the treasurer, any assistant treasurer, the secretary or any assistant secretary of the corporation, or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors or the president or a vice president, is authorized to vote, represent and exercise on behalf of the corporation all rights incident to any and all shares of any other corporation or corporations standing in the name of the corporation. The authority granted herein may be exercised either by such person directly or by any other person authorized to do so by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by such person having the authority.

9.6 Construction; Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction and definitions in the General Corporation Law of Delaware shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, the term "including" means "including but not limited to," and the term "person" includes a corporation, limited liability company, trust partnership or other entity and a natural person.

ARTICLE 10
AMENDMENTS

10.1 Amendments

Subject to any voting requirements set forth in the corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the original or other Bylaws of the corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed by the stockholders entitled to vote or, if so provided in the corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors. The fact that such power has been so conferred upon the Board of Directors shall not divest the stockholders of the power, nor limit their power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation in accordance with these Bylaws and applicable law.

APPENDIX

Procedures for Submission and
Determination of Claims for Indemnification
Pursuant to Article 6 of the Bylaws.

SECTION 1. Purpose. The Procedures for Submission and Determination of Claims for Indemnification Pursuant to Article 6 of the Bylaws (these “Procedures”) are to implement the provisions of Article 6 of the Bylaws of the corporation (the “Bylaws”) in compliance with the requirement Section 6.9 thereof.

SECTION 2. Definitions. For purposes of these Procedures:

(A) All terms that are defined in Article 6 of the Bylaws shall have the meanings ascribed to them therein when used in these Procedures unless otherwise defined herein.

(B) “Expenses” include all reasonable attorneys’ fees, court costs, transcript costs, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees, and all other disbursements or expenses of the types customarily incurred in connection with prosecuting, defending, preparing to prosecute or defend, investigating, or being or preparing to be a witness in, a Proceeding; and shall also include such retainers as counsel may reasonably require in advance of undertaking the representation of an Indemnitee in a Proceeding.

(C) “Indemnitee” includes any present or former director or officer of the corporation who was or is, or is threatened to be made, a witness in or a party to any Proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or any of its majority-owned subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (except in each of the foregoing situations to the extent any agreement, arrangement or understanding of agency contains provisions that supersede or abrogate indemnification under Article 6 of the Bylaws) of another corporation or of any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise

(D) “Proceeding” includes any action, suit, arbitration, alternative dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, administrative hearing or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except one initiated by an Indemnitee unless the Board of Directors shall have authorized the commencement thereof.

SECTION 3. Submission and Determination of Claims.

(A) To obtain indemnification or advancement of Expenses under Article 6 of the Bylaws, an Indemnitee shall submit to the Secretary of the corporation a written request therefor, including therein or therewith such documentation and information as is reasonably available to the Indemnitee and is reasonably necessary to permit a determination as to whether and what extent the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification or advancement of Expenses, as the case may be. The Secretary shall, promptly upon receipt of a request for indemnification, advise the Board of Directors (if the Indemnitee is a present or former director or officer of the corporation) or the officer of the corporation authorized to make the determination as to whether an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification (if the Indemnitee is not a present or former director or officer of the corporation) thereof in writing if a determination in accordance with Section 6.6 of the Bylaws is required.

(B) Upon written request by an Indemnitee for indemnification pursuant to Section 3(A) of these Procedures, a determination with respect to the Indemnitee’s entitlement thereto in the specific case, if required by the bylaws, shall be made in accordance with Section 6.6 of the Bylaws, and, if it is so determined that the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, payment to the Indemnitee shall be made within ten days after such determination. The Indemnitee shall cooperate with the person, persons or entity making such determination, with respect to the Indemnitee’s entitlement to indemnification, including providing to such person, persons or entity upon reasonable advance request any documentation or information which is not privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure and which is reasonably available to the Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to such determination.

(C) If entitlement to indemnification is to be made by Independent Counsel pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws, the Independent Counsel shall be selected by the Indemnitee (unless the Indemnitee shall request that such selection be made by the Board of Directors, in which event the immediately preceding sentence shall apply), and the Indemnitee shall give written notice to the corporation advising it of the identity of the Independent Counsel so selected unless the Indemnitee shall request that such selection be made by the Board of Directors, in which event the immediately preceding sentence shall apply). In either event, the Indemnitee or the corporation, as the case may be, may, within seven days after such written notice of selection shall have been given, deliver to the corporation or to the Indemnitee, as the case may be, a written objection to such selection. Such objection may be asserted only on the ground that the Independent Counsel so selected does not meet the requirements of "Independent Counsel" as defined in Section 6.10 of the Bylaws, and the objection shall set forth with particularity the factual basis of such assertion. If such written objection is made, the Independent Counsel so selected may not serve as Independent Counsel unless and until a court has determined that such objection is without merit. If, within twenty days after the next regularly scheduled Board of Directors meeting following submission by the Indemnitee of a written request for indemnification pursuant to Section 3(A) of these Procedures, no Independent Counsel shall have been selected and not objected to, either the corporation or the Indemnitee may petition the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or other court of competent jurisdiction for resolution of any objection which shall have been made by the corporation or the Indemnitee to the other's selection of Independent Counsel and/or for the appointment as Independent Counsel of a person selected by the Court or by such other person as the Court shall designate, and the person with respect to whom an objection is favorably resolved or the person so appointed shall act as Independent Counsel under Section 6.6 of the Bylaws. The corporation shall pay any and all reasonable fees and expenses (including without limitation any advance retainers reasonably required by counsel) of Independent Counsel incurred by such Independent Counsel in connection with acting pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws, and the corporation shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses (including without limitation any advance retainers reasonably required by counsel) incident to the procedures of Section 6.6 of the Bylaws and this Section 3(C), regardless of the manner in which Independent Counsel was selected or appointed. Upon the delivery of its opinion pursuant to Article 6 of the Bylaws or, if earlier, the due commencement of any judicial proceeding or arbitration pursuant to Section 4(A)(3) of these Procedures, Independent Counsel shall be discharged and relieved of any further responsibility in such capacity (subject to the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing).

(D) In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification under the bylaws, the person, persons or entity making such determination shall presume that an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under the bylaws if the Indemnitee has submitted a request for indemnification in accordance with Section 3(A) of these Procedures, and the corporation shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in connection with the making by any person, persons or entity of any determination contrary to that presumption.

SECTION 4. Review and Enforcement of Determination.

(A) In the event that: (1) advancement of Expenses is not timely made pursuant to Section 6.8 of the Bylaws; (2) payment of indemnification is not made pursuant to Sections 6.4 or 6.5 of the Bylaws within ten days after receipt by the corporation of written request therefor; (3) a determination is made pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws that an Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under the Bylaws; (4) the determination of entitlement to indemnification is to be made by Independent Counsel pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws and such determination shall not have been made and delivered in a written opinion within ninety days after receipt by the corporation of the written request for indemnification; or (5) payment of indemnification is not made within ten days after a determination has been made pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws that an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification or within ten days after such determination is deemed to have been made pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Bylaws, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to an adjudication in an appropriate court of the State of Delaware, or in any other court of competent jurisdiction, of the Indemnitee's entitlement to such indemnification or advancement of Expenses. Alternatively, the Indemnitee, at his or her option, may seek an award in arbitration to be conducted by a single arbitrator pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The Indemnitee shall commence such proceeding seeking an adjudication or an award in arbitration within one year following the date on which the Indemnitee first has the right to commence such proceeding pursuant to this Section 4(A). The corporation shall not oppose the Indemnitee's right to seek any such adjudication or award in arbitration.

(B) In the event that a determination shall have been made pursuant to Section 6.6 of the Bylaws that an Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification, any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to this Section 4 shall be conducted in all respects as a de novo trial, or arbitration, on the merits and the Indemnitee shall not be prejudiced by reason of that adverse determination. The corporation shall have the burden of proving in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to this Section 4 that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification or advancement of Expenses, as the case may be.

(C) If a determination shall have been made or deemed to have been made pursuant to Sections 6.6 or 6.7 of the Bylaws that an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the corporation shall be bound by such determination in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to this Section 4, absent: (1) a misstatement or omission of a material fact in connection with the Indemnitee's request for indemnification; or (2) a prohibition of such indemnification under applicable law.

(D) The corporation shall be precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to this Section 4 that the procedures and presumptions of these Procedures are not valid, binding and enforceable, and shall stipulate in any such judicial proceeding or arbitration that the corporation is bound by all the provisions of these Procedures.

(E) In the event that an Indemnitee, pursuant to this Section 4, seeks to enforce the Indemnitee's rights under, or to recover damages for breach of, Article 6 of the Bylaws or these Procedures in a judicial proceeding or arbitration, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to recover from the corporation, and shall be indemnified by the corporation against, any and all expenses (of the types described in the definition of Expenses in Section 2 of these Procedures) actually and reasonably incurred in such judicial proceeding or arbitration, but only if the Indemnitee prevails therein. If it shall be determined in such judicial proceeding or arbitration that the Indemnitee is entitled to receive part but not all of the indemnification or advancement of Expenses sought, the expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such judicial proceeding or arbitration shall be appropriately prorated.

SECTION 5. Amendments. These Procedures may be amended at any time and from time to time in the same manner as any bylaw of the corporation in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation; provided, however, that notwithstanding any amendment, alteration or repeal of these Procedures or any provision hereof, any Indemnitee shall be entitled to utilize these Procedures with respect to any claim for indemnification arising out of any action taken or omitted prior to such amendment, alteration or repeal except to the extent otherwise required by law.

CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER

Notwithstanding any other terms or provisions of the Offer or the Agreement and Plan of Merger to which this Annex I is attached (the "Agreement"), Purchaser shall not be obligated to accept for payment, and, subject to the rules and regulations of the SEC (including Rule 14e-1(c) promulgated under the Exchange Act), shall not be obligated to pay for, and may delay the acceptance for payment of or payment for, any validly tendered Shares pursuant to the Offer (and not theretofore accepted for payment or paid for), if:

(1) There shall not have been validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) immediately prior to the Expiration Date that number of Shares which, when added to the Shares owned by Parent and its Subsidiaries (if any), would represent at least a majority of the Shares outstanding (assuming conversion or exercise of all derivative securities convertible or exercisable immediately prior to the Expiration Date, including all Convertible Senior Notes, and all vested Company Stock Options, regardless of the conversion or exercise price), excluding for the purposes of this condition as Shares tendered pursuant to guaranteed delivery procedures and not actually delivered prior to the Expiration Date) (the "Minimum Condition");

(2) immediately prior to the expiration of the Offer, any of the following conditions shall not have been satisfied (or, to the extent permitted under this Agreement and applicable Legal Requirement, waived):

(a) the Company, the Company Board and the agent under the Rights Plan shall have taken all necessary actions to ensure that no rights shall be issued or exercisable under the Rights Plan, and that the Rights Plan shall have no force or effect, with respect to the Transactions;

(b) the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in Sections 3.3(a), 3.3(c), 3.3(e) and 3.3(f) (Capitalization), 3.4(a) (Authority), 3.23 (No Vote Required) and 3.24 (Fairness Opinion) of the Agreement shall each have been accurate in all respects as of the date of the Agreement, and shall be accurate in all respects at and as of the Expiration Date as if made on and as of such Expiration Date (it being understood that, for purposes of determining the accuracy of such representations and warranties, (i) all "Material Adverse Effect" qualifications and other materiality qualifications contained in such representations and warranties shall be disregarded, and (ii) the truth and correctness of those representations or warranties that address matters only as of a specific date shall be measured only as of such date); provided, however, that in the case of representations and warranties of the Company set forth in Section 3.3(a), 3.3(c), 3.3(e) and 3.3(f), such representations and warranties shall be deemed accurate in all respects unless the failure to be so true and accurate would reasonably be expected to result in additional cost, expense, liability or amounts to Parent, Purchaser or any Acquired Corporation or amount payable by Parent or Purchaser hereunder, of more than $1,000,000 in the aggregate;

MACOM Announces Definitive Agreement to Acquire Mindspeed Technologies

MACOM expects Non-GAAP EPS accretion between $0.15 and $0.20 in fiscal 2014 and between $0.25 and $0.30 in fiscal 2015

Mindspeed intends to sell its wireless business before closing

LOWELL, Mass., November 5, 2013 – M/A-COM Technology Solutions Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: MTSI) (MACOM), a leading supplier of high performance RF, microwave, and millimeter wave products, today announced it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Mindspeed Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ:MSPD) (Mindspeed), a leading supplier of semiconductor solutions for communications infrastructure applications, for $5.05 per share in a cash tender offer.

Mindspeed is also in advanced discussions with a potential strategic buyer for its wireless business, which it intends to sell prior to closing of the MACOM transaction.

Highlights of the transaction include:

- The companies' combined trailing twelve months (TTM) revenue is approximately $451 million with non-GAAP gross margin of approximately 50%, excluding Mindspeed's wireless business.
- Cash transaction valued at $272 million for Mindspeed's $132 million in TTM revenue (excluding wireless business and non-recurring revenue from sales of intellectual property) and $26 million of cash and cash equivalents at September 27, 2013.
- MACOM expects substantial annual synergies from reduction in corporate overhead, corporate R&D overhead, SG&A and exiting underperforming businesses.
- Expected to be immediately accretive to MACOM's non-GAAP earnings per share with expected non-GAAP EPS accretion between $0.15 and $0.20 per share in fiscal 2014 and between $0.25 and $0.30 per share in fiscal 2015.
- Positions MACOM to be a global leader in 100G optical networking and expands MACOM's addressable market, moving from long-haul to data centers and metro markets.
- Complements MACOM's current product offerings with a high performance analog (HPA) portfolio of low latency crosspoint switches, integrated optical physical media devices (PMDs) and low power signal conditioners.
- Diversifies MACOM's served markets to include Enterprise applications.
- Expands MACOM's addressable RF and Microwave market with the addition of high performance Silicon Germanium (SiGe) capability.
- Complements MACOM's strong U.S. presence with a broadened customer footprint and strong sales channel in the Asia Pacific region.

Commenting on the transaction, John Croteau, President and Chief Executive Officer stated, "This acquisition will position MACOM as a leading global provider of 100G optical solutions which underscores our growth strategy in commercial communications markets. Our interest in Mindspeed is the company's high-growth, high-margin HPA business as well as its cash-generating VoIP business. The addition of the HPA portfolio, which consists of the world's fastest crosspoint switches, ultra low power signal conditioners and industry-leading optical PMDs, aligns well with MACOM's business model -- offering non-GAAP gross margins approaching 70%, long product life cycles, and sticky customer relationships."

Mindspeed also has a communications processor business, which currently does not align with MACOM's long-term strategic focus, and therefore additional options will be explored while continuing to support its customers. Separately, in the event Mindspeed's wireless business is not sold, it will be restructured and wound down while continuing to support its customers.

Mr. Croteau added, "Mindspeed's leadership in SiGe-based products, along with its long-held position in enterprise video and metro markets, complements our strong position in long-haul modulator drivers based on Indium Phosphide (InP) and Gallium Arsenide (GaAs) technology. This will position MACOM as a clear leader across all 100G segments, all physical layer products, and all requisite technologies enabling us to capitalize on the expected decade-long build out of the 100G optical market."

"This acquisition will diversify our served markets to include enterprise applications, while also enabling MACOM to strengthen our core RF and Microwave position with SiGe technology," continued Mr. Croteau. "The transaction will also broaden our customer footprint and reach, by leveraging Mindspeed's strong sales channel in Asia, which complements our strength in North America and other regions."

MACOM estimates that the acquisition will result in substantial synergies from corporate overhead, SG&A, and exit from underperforming businesses. MACOM also expects that the acquisition will be accretive to non-GAAP earnings per share between $0.15 and $0.20 in fiscal 2014 and between $0.25 and $0.30 in fiscal 2015.

MACOM intends to commence a tender offer to purchase each outstanding common share of Mindspeed for $5.05 in cash, without interest, and MACOM will assume certain equity awards held by Mindspeed employees. The transaction value is approximately $272 million in diluted equity value, or $246 million net of Mindspeed's cash position of approximately $26 million as of September 27, 2013. MACOM expects to finance the acquisition through a combination of cash on hand and its existing undrawn revolving credit facility. The boards of both companies have approved the transaction, which is subject to customary closing conditions and regulatory approvals. MACOM currently expects the transaction to close by the end of calendar 2013.

Barclays acted as exclusive financial advisor and Perkins Coie LLP acted as legal counsel to MACOM.
